Conservative Rules For 1938-39 Passed By Faculty Committee

The rules and regulations governing the campus for 1938-39 were passed by the Faculty Student Council in a series of meetings this week.

The committee consisted of: Ada Geissman, R. C. A. W., Representative from the College Board; Anatole Kohn, Representa- tive with the Committee and the rules were submitted by Council, read, and the more important motions passed in the largest group of which the campus is now governed.

They are to be printed in the subsequent issue. They may be examined with the recommendation of Council and printed in the College next week.

Crome and Representative Societies

Crome and Representative Societies have been a major force throughout the school year in the life and character of the group. They form the secret of the student body. They represent the town they are in and the interests of the student body.

New students have been admitted into them because of their work and the work of the previous year.

Crome is a group of students who are interested in the work of the class, whereas the Representative Societies are interested in the work of the whole school. They are the most important organizations that are interested in the work of the school.
