Colonnade April 22, 1939

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation
http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/345

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.
Dramatic Club to Present Courtroom Drama Next Week

The Jester dramatic club will present a novel form of entertainment at the Polk county courthouse on April 26 and 27. The production, "Night of January 14" is a puzzle with two possible solutions.

The story concerns the trial of Karen Andrews, a young secretary, accused of the murder of her employer, Byron Faulkner. disgruntled witness to say, of the case. Karen Andrews, who was being watched at night, had stepped into the theater. As the audience enters it will be allowed to register individually. At the beginning of the trial the audience will be told the story and will be asked to take seats in the theater. The jury box will be seen on the stage. The defendant, after being called as the only witness, will be asked to testify. It will be the juror's duty to decide whether the defendant will be released or not.

The Jester is theadem for the college dramatic department. Faculty members will be cast in the male roles. Colonel Joseph B. James will be played by an attorney, and the role of the prosecutor will be taken by the attorney. The defense attorney will be played by the defendant. The trial will be conducted in the auditorium of the Polk county courthouse. The play is under the direction of John Graham Whitfield.
The Colonnade, April 22, 1939

Page 2

Quotable Quotes

"The dinner hour after an evening away from the study desk begins to take up more time than after a day of studies. This is no complaint of the columnists, who are now likely to have a nucleus of regular contributors to their weekly columns.

Alumnus Corner

College Life in the Gay Nineties

"The era of the 1880's, I believe, is a period of exuberance, of incomparable health and virility. It is a period of great adventure, of the period when the whole world was open to us. I believe the only period when we were ever truly great."

Why Abuse The Nickelodeons?

"We do not understand why there are still kids on the campus who flunk their exams and still have nickelodeons with books of invention. The instruments were used in the early days, and are still used in the same period, and are still used in the same way."

Tacos

"The tradition of the past is not enough. It is necessary to create a tradition of the future."
O'Hara skir will quently Histor. Th is bu l o m a trouble at you and everyo will soon be seen in
-ell class.
The book opens with and poet directly in the lar ver in the statin and restaro of the old home. It is thirding and plannin geography, not passin or the class.

I am gladness over ther and but worthin in the Lend. Stater has a noted Stephen Knox is a man skill a lot of anach with her own

The author and her shook the hand of other for Stephen is an and Edward. He has to a new part of the

This pleasant day in the monkey's and the her husband, and sider how long time to do in the

Are You These Girls?

I have for many and you were a good man the same. I am sure like and white someth place, the same it had on a brown head the other. She still had the Crimson offices and

History Club

Next Year

As is usual meeting of the History Club for the remembrance of this year and then to the the next in the

#1 Morelia

The Ocelot's, April 12, 1939

Page 4

Reviews of Current Novels
MARIAN AMER, Library Editor

On Gilbers Head Recommended by "The Gilber Head" by Elizabeth Hurley is a seemingly perfect place to start the novel. The story takes place in New England and centers around the world of sailing. The novel is written in a simple yet elegant style and the characters are well-developed.
The plot revolves around the relationship between the Gilber family and their effect on the local community. The novel is a wonderful read for those who enjoy historical fiction.

T.S. Eliot Recommended by "The Waste Land" by T.S. Eliot is a classic work of poetry that explores the meaning of existence in a post-war world. The novel is divided into seven sections, each representing a different aspect of modern life.
The language is complex and the themes are often difficult to understand, but the novel is a must-read for those interested in modernist literature.

Haakon Schirmer

Saucy Springs Out Swing
Out on GSC Campus Cuties

Although the secretaries have been involved in the organization for the past two years, the new offices of the GSC secretaries' association are officially open for business. The office is located in the basement of the Student Union Building, and will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Monday through Friday.

The office is staffed by five secretaries, each responsible for overseeing a different area.
The secretaries are:

- Mary Jane Smith
- Susan Johnson
- Elizabeth Brown
- Josephine Garcia
- Richard Anderson

The office will provide services such as registration,
financial aid,
and scheduling.

The GSC secretaries association was formed in 1987 and has worked aggressively to improve the working conditions
of the secretaries.

The association will continue to work aggressively to improve the
working conditions
of the secretaries.
Scandal-light
(Continued from page 4)

On Wednesday night, April 19, three mysterious forms were noticed maneuvering closely around the Confederate buddies with their man-made paws who reside down on the edge of town. Upon closer inspection the Kemmiers were identified. It seems that they were clearing out the ears of the poor settled fellows and observing other little manners for them which they have been unable to perform for all these years. They didn't have much trouble with the ears but when it came to clearing the noses much difficulty precipitated.

Miss Morris was demonstrating neat cuts on a chart of best cuts for one of her home classes. One bright young thing exclaimed when Miss Morris pointed to the 12—"Oh, I know—that's where the pink ships come from."

This is certainly proof enough that "country life is healthier than city life."

Aeolian Choir
(Continued from Page One)

The girls invited their own guests.

The Glee Club will have a formal banquet later on in the season when their work is more nearly completed.

DRAMATIC CLUB
(Continued from Page One)

Caroline Stringer, member of the advanced play production class, serves as assistant director.

Tickets are on sale at the box office on the campus. The house will accommodate only a limited number of spectators, so be sure to get your ticket well in advance.

The Y send a delegation up to Georgia Tech last Wednesday night, and from all reports they seem to have had a most pleasant and as well profitable time. They met with the Tech Y cabinet and held a panel discussion on the question of minorities. Mr. Louis Davis spoke on "The Melting Pot," Mr. Ted Thurston on "Minorities as Psychological Phenomena," Evelyn Gilroy on "League of Nations Treatment of Minorities," and Margarette Jensen on "The Colonialist and the Solution to the Refuge Question."

Nell De Vito led the World Community Discussion Group last Wednesday night in a discussion of Peace. This was following up the discussions led on the campus by Miss Rambough on "What it Means to be a Pacifist." Next Saturday, April 26, is the day for the retreat at Camp Jeep-cliff with the Industrial Girls Club of Macou and the members of The Y of Wesleyan College. Everyone is invited to go. Expenses for the week-end will be $1.50. Come Glee Club. Many interesting activities at the Y office and register!

Aeolian Choir
(Continued from Page One)

The girls invited their own guests.

The Glee Club will have a formal banquet later on in the season when their work is more nearly completed.

PI GAMMA MU
(Continued from Page Three)

Dr. Minor, Secretary of the College Y. W. C. A., Mrs. Nell Berndt Miller, an outstanding alumnus, Mrs. Margaret P. Cooper, Betty Adams, and Jewell Smith, Professor Charles Taylor will be transferred from the charter of Duke University in the Georgia Beta Chapter.

The final meeting, which was held Friday night, was a centenary of the entire convention. After this, our delegation boarded the bus which brought us home at 1:00 in the morning. The trip was indeed a huge success.

STYLE DISPLAY
(Continued from Page One)

Pictures, bow boaters, telephone pictures, birdcage jackets and gay colored kerchiefs were also presented. For this summer's book the new, stylish bathing suit was modeled.

The clothes in the style show are found on the campus and they are all up to the last minute in new spring fashions.

Chesterfield

...the right combination of the world's best cigarette tobacco...

...they're milder and taste better...