YW Conducts Membership Drive on No-Cash Basis
Cynthia Mallory Explains Purpose and Activities

In Two Chapel Programs

"We invite all to realize a rich and creative life through a group something of YWCA, so begins the YWCA pledge, the signing of which will be the climax of a week's concentrated drive for Y members.

After Cynthia Mallory, secretary of the Y, addressed chapel in an effort to explain the policies and aims for the coming year, the upperclassmen officers of the Y distributed a program of all the Y activities, giving the place, time, leader, and object of each meeting, to all the dormitory rooms.

Because of the activity fee required of all students, there is no money involved in joining the Y. The only necessary act to become a member is to sign the pledge. The membership committee, held by Mary Jones Everett, will distribute the pledge cards in chapel soon.

Climaxing Religious Emphasis Week, sponsored by the "Y," will be the tea given on Addison room garden from 1 to 6 o'clock, Sunday afternoon for the faculty and student body. Members of the Student Committee will serve. The theme of the tea is "get acquainted," and its aim is to bring to the notice union between new and old students and faculty. Everyone is invited and urged to attend.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be a most important meeting of all those girls who signed up for work on the Colonnade stall next Monday night (October 17) at 7 p.m. in the Biology lecture room. It is important that all those who are interested in continuing Colonnade work on the staff be there.

All clubs that would like to have announcements of meetings printed in the Colonnade, please bring them in by Wednesday afternoon. Clubs interested in having meetings reported will please come to Miss Mallory and a list of officers will be sent out and you will be promptly notified.

In Government

is Oct. 12 Theme

On Columbus Day, Oct. 12, citizenship day programs in all the schools and colleges all over the state will attempt to emphasize the individual's share in every community's consciousness. The League of Women Voters is trying to encourage all young people of voting age to take an interest in our government by voting and being active in our community. This is an opportunity for students and others to express their views on the importance of their responsibility.

The History Club under the leadership of Dr. Amanda Johnson promoted a citizenship day drive here on Oct. 12.

The chapel program to be presented includes the following:

Devotional - By Margarette Scott
Song - "America"-Led by Miss Hush

Poll of Student Interest Helps "Y" Meet Problems

While Y Student, Supplementary Commissions and the Freshman Sponsors were appointed at Bent, the members decided to utilize their abilities in the past year, and try to find solutions.

Margaret Calhoun, general secretary of the Y, joined as make difficulties: lack of money for entertainment; alumnae not attending their responsibilities; no calendar for scheduled meetings; lack of interest, information, and understanding.

At a meeting presided over by Cynthia Mallory, executive secretary of the Y, the year's program was planned as follows: To contact a membership campaign where members will be installed at Y's; have a tea for the freshmen; have a mimeographed sheet for each meeting outlining topic, number present, purpose, and remarks; work out an interest indicator from this information.

Granddaughter's Sponsor Program Saturday; Picnic Lunch Served on Campus

An unprecedented number of parents are expected to appear in the campus next Saturday.

Serving all the advantages of an extensive publicity campaign, and the occurrence of this annual celebration in the fully accommodating Full quarter, Parent's Day, October 13, should reach a new peak of success. The Granddaughter's club and the Alumnae Association, co-sponsors of Parent's Day, are in charge of all the day's festivities, and are divided into committees—one Granddaughter and one Alumnae chairman at the head of each committee.

News stories covering the event have not only been sent out to the larger state papers, but a committee headed by Mary Jeanne Everet and Miss Austelle Adams has been appointed to contact all alumnae and housemothers in an effort to get every student to send a regular news story to her own local paper.

At 11:00 a.m. a program will be given in the auditorium, on important part of which is a short play written and directed by Miss Katherine Scott. The cast includes: Margaret Meaders, Bern Nelson, Dorothy Taylor, Annie Joe Ray, and Bernice McCullar, alums; Sybil Searight, president of the Granddaughter's Club, Nancy Green, Chelise Mcintosh, newsecretary, Auguste Murphy, Missus Ma- krever Korean, Anna Mac, Bernice Green, Peggy Bowden, Anne Taylor, Carolyn Sturgill, Emily McBride, Elizabeth Collum, Margaret Ralbock, Nola McDade, Josephine Bean, Margaret Weaver, Dr. Gay Watts, Martha Adams, North Woodard on back pages

MRS. MARTIN'S O. P. IS STILL A WASTEBASKET

Perhaps the student girls are getting Mrs. Martin down. Whatever it is, they displayed a collaboratively lacerated piece of debris the other day. Topping down the front steps was an air of importance and a newly written letter in her hand. It was a block of paper, written in ink, and neatly dropped in the letter.

The contents of the unmailed missile came Celia Craig, angling and angling at an inverted angle.

Mrs. Student Hall Martin is now working on new letters of her letters have taken the same course to the dish.

SPORTS RACKET

Terrell Proper First in Volleyball As Team Defeats Beeson, Ennis

Volleyball is in full swing now in the local schools with the year-round practices and competition to keep the season alive. In Evarts, Terrell Proper led his team to a win over Beeson, which was not an easy task. Proper, who is known for his skill and determination, scored a high number of points that contributed to his team's victory.

Bicycles, Skates, Golf Clubs Available for Students

Students can now purchase bicycles, skates, and golf clubs at the Evarts School. These items are available for rent and can be picked up from the school administration. Proper arrangements can be made to facilitate the process, ensuring that students can engage in their preferred activities.

Announcement

The Evarts School is proud to announce the establishment of a new service called "SPORTS RACKET." This service aims to provide a comprehensive experience for students interested in sports, including opportunities to participate in various activities.

Rec Recognition Service Presented in CAMPUS

A recognition service has been presented in CAMPUS to honor students with participation in the sports program. This initiative is intended to encourage students to continue their involvement and achieve their goals.

Suggestions Welcomed by Rec Board

The Rec Board is welcoming suggestions and ideas from students on how to improve the sports experience. Students are encouraged to share their feedback and suggestions to help enhance the overall sports program.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is preparing for a new season with a focus on improving their skills and talents. Auditions are scheduled to take place, and students interested in auditioning are encouraged to contact the orchestra director for more information.

CAMPUS MARKETPLACE

The CAMPUS MARKETPLACE is hosting a new event, "Bicycles, Skates, Golf Clubs Available for Students," allowing students to rent these items. This event is part of the ongoing efforts to improve the sports experience for students.

Pool Open to Students After Physical Exams

The pool is now open for students after they have completed their physical exams. Students are reminded to check their exam results and prepare for the upcoming season.

Citizenship Day

A Citizenship Day event is scheduled, and students are encouraged to participate to learn about their rights and responsibilities as citizens.

Freshmen "Go In For Sport" Dresess and Eyecatchers

The freshmen are expected to take up the roles and responsibilities of the seniors with some degree of caution, but what can they do in the whirling vortex of the student social life? Some choose to engage, while others may prefer to observe and avoid the whirl.

When asked why they chose to participate, one student, Terrell Proper, replied, "I joined because I thought it would be challenging and rewarding. It's a great opportunity to meet new people and have fun." Another student, Beeson, added, "I joined to see what all the hype was about. It turned out to be a lot of fun."
saying, "What are those college girls doing rebellion?"

Every body in the state, sup-portively, is exulted with the splendid work Miss Mabel Rogers

does in sending the Chimney

Swifts. In order to accomplish this

she has to be on hand as the birds

leave their chimneys early in the morning and catch them as they come out. One misguided soul delusively of bestowing land where land was due went up to Miss

Rogers and said, "I want to congratulate you on the wonderful gift of work you are doing in clearing the chimneys of Millingewells of Chimney Swifts. I understand you have already clear-cut out a hundred and twenty-seven." Unless you can visualize

Miss Rogers slaughtering the poor, defenseless Swifts by the hundreds the point is missed.

For those who have a vague conception of the creature, Dr. L.

C. Lindsay has a philosophy that might satisfy your expectations.

He says that God stood on a hill and said K-MV3 and things became to happen. The only comment that can spring from the depths of my ignorance is that it looks simple to say the least.

PARENTS DAY

Dorothy, Hilda Talbot, Fay Crow-
er, Lois McCurry, Janet Miller,

Rebecca Grace, Mary Ella Martin,

Kathryn McGriff, Anne Ruby,

and Ros Abrams. Music will be presented by Elizabeth Loebeister

and Harriet Chase.

But when the time arrives, don't forget to sign your name and the name of your parents, if they are present, in the dormitory book that will be placed in the hall for that purpose, because after the curiosity pictures bunch on the campus,

the dormitory having the largest representation of visiting parents,

will gather up its stage and have photograph taken, besides being officially awarded a title.

Campus hostesses will be stationed at strategic spots all over the campus, anxious to offer any service—guidance or information,

and an information booth will be established between Parks and Attleboro for the same purpose.
