Taylor Elected Frosh President

Late News Briefs

AIR RAID ON BRITAIN
German aerials planes were beaten back by the Royal Air Force in what was believed to be a bid to disrupt British preparations for offensive in Belgium. In the battle yesterday afternoon, one German plane was forced down over the British coast. All Britain's forces are being held in readiness to defend their coast if Hitler does stage an air raid.

EMERGENCY SESSION
The Belgian cabinet has called in an emergency session while the American and British evacuation are trying to evacuate their nationals from Belgium and Bremen in case Hitler moves through the low countries.

ATTACK ON ITALY
In Germany, the Nazi states are threatening the world for a would-be assassin of Hitler at the Vatican. Berlin has an unknown party smashed the window of Heinrich Hoffmann's photography shop and made a picture of Chancellor Hitler. This raid on the shop of Hitler's official photographer is believed to be a protest against the Munich bombing.

AID FOR SEAMAN
President Roosevelt today promised aid to the citizens of the Mediterranean area in time of need. His statement was made in a message to Congress. Roosevelt will also provide aid to the countries of the Mediterranean area for furnishing the necessary aid. This aid will enable many companies to continue their overseas trade in beligerent areas.

Wells Dedicates New Auditorium

Dedication exercises for the recently completed Peabody auditorium, located in Peabody grammar school building, were held Tuesday morning.

The program was opened with the singing of "America," a devotional, and the pledge to the flag. This was followed by a short program of music by the Peabody Glee club.

Dr. Gey Wells made the dedication speech, telling some facts of its construction and its advantages, explaining that the beautiful new auditorium seats 435 students, and is one of the finest in the entire University of Georgia system.

The Peabody Verse Speaking choir was also featured on the program.

INDEX

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Book Review</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Best Sellers</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Diettalk Speech</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Editorial</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Golden Slapper</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Louis From Here</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Carter</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marriage Ideals</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Music Course</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Special Features</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Opinions</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>These People Make News</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Colonnade Gets Into Swing With Forty New Recruits

Record Number of New Members Initiated

The Colonnade tightened its belt, put its shoulder to the wheel, and began work in earnest the week when the 1929 crop of new members having fulfilled their apprenticeship, were formerly made members of the staff with distinctive duties.

Three Times Last Year's Number

Forty girls at the meeting Wednesday afternoon, announced their intention of continuing work on the paper and were assigned permanent positions. This is an all-time record as far as the number of incoming members of the staff concerned, being little over three times as many as were included last year. A large percent of this group is made up of Freshmen, though there are many upperclassmen who entitled for the first time this year.

Antics of Sycamore Family Revived in Jester's Play

"You Can't Take It With You" Passed by Broadway Critics

"An evening with the Sycamore family, the warmest, most inviolable family you ever met-Mrs. Hart and George Keenan have written their finest play about these. It is by all odds the best comedy of the season." These statements were made in Stage Magazine of January 19, 1932, the season when critics were raving about "You Can't Take It With You." The critics have said that Broadway and Motion Picture hit with both talent, including students, broadertalents, and township people and will present their wares in the Russell Auditorium on November 16 at 8:00 in the Russell Auditorium.

Catskill Applicant

Other stories that appeared during the Broadway season of "You Can't Take It With You". Some people have succumbed to the charm of the utterly untypical "Sycamore" and others have had George Kaufman make it their own, thus bolstering the role of Tom and Pauline.
Clothes Make The Woman—Or Do They?

GRANDMA ALBRIGHT's words appear to be "in a day and a half." The word "in" suggests an immediate or rapid occurrence, which could imply a situation where the woman's appearance is quickly changed to match the clothes she is wearing. The word "day" refers to a 24-hour period, while "half" suggests a measure of time, possibly indicating that the transformation takes place over a short period. The phrase could be interpreted as meaning that the woman's overall appearance is significantly altered by the clothes she wears, either positively or negatively.

History Club

There will be an informal meeting of the students interested in History on the roof of the main dormitory at 10 a.m. on Thursday. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the importance of history and to explore different historical events and periods. The meeting will be open to all students, regardless of their majors or interests.

Students Want No 3rd Term

Dewey for Next President

When the history club meets on Thursday, students will discuss the possibility of a third term for President Dewey. The discussion will focus on the implications of such a term and the potential impact on the administration and legacy of the current president. The meeting will be an opportunity for students to voice their opinions and concerns regarding the future of the university's leadership.

GSCW Girl Considers Moral Standards First in Marriage

By Louise Johnson

If you go well, the average GSCW girl will be expected not to be 25, according to a "girl on the street" survey taken last week. In fact, the survey revealed that over 70 percent of the girls questioned preferred partners who conformed to a simplified version of the 1960s lifestyle of the female student.

"Moral Standards First in Marriage, " By Louise Johnson

It will be a battle royal for several reasons. First, the survey suggests that the majority of girls prefer partners who adhere to traditional moral standards. Second, the survey indicates that many girls are willing to compromise their own values in order to be with someone they perceive as a suitable partner. Finally, the survey implies that the current generation of college students is more conservative than their predecessors, which could have significant implications for future relationships and marriages.

Library Features List of Current Best Sellers

The following list is compiled from the main library or the organization's collection.

Ennis Servises Coffee This Sunday to Dates

Ennis serves coffee this Sunday to dates. According to an announcement by the library director, the event will take place in the library's common area. The library director encourages all students to attend and to make use of the resources available to them.

College Games (Continued from page 3)

The college games were well attended, with a large crowd gathering in the main auditorium. The games featured a variety of activities, including a talent show, a quiz competition, and a dance. The atmosphere was lively and festive, with students enjoying themselves and socializing.

Early Pay (Continued from page 2)

The early pay system was implemented to help students manage their finances more effectively. Students were able to receive paychecks earlier than usual, which could have significant implications for their ability to meet their financial obligations. The system was well received by students, who appreciated the added financial flexibility.

Soph's Wear Golden Slipper Home

The Sophomore class entered the house of the golden slipper on a warm summer Friday night. The event, which is one of the most important traditions of the year, has become a symbol of the camaraderie and spirit that characterizes the college experience.

"Real Problem is War Aim," States Capel

"The real problem is war aim," Dr. Capel stated in his speech. The theme of war and its implications was a consistent theme throughout the morning's events. The speech was well received by the audience, who were deeply moved by the orator's eloquent delivery and poignant message.

Carter Presents Popular Program Tonight

"The Future of the United Nations," in a program on world affairs, will be presented tonight at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. The program is open to all students, and tickets are available at the box office for a nominal fee.

Soph's Natural Resources Are Only Hope, Destler Says

"We are all aware of the natural resources that our country possesses," Destler said. "These resources are the key to our economic future, and we must do everything in our power to protect and preserve them."
Home Ec. Club Dedicates New Room

An informal coffee was given Wednesday afternoon in the recently redecorated Home Economics club room. Matron in home economics from the freshmen and sophomore classes were present.

Once, long, long ago, there was a king who loved a dog, and the dog was so loved that the king had a chummy dog and decided to take it to the king. On the way back, several people who, upon learning his name, practiced great rewards for him. One suggested that he might get a lot of money, another thought he might receive a lot of food, while a third thought he might be made prince minister. When the man arrived at the palace he was drawn to the king who asked what his errand was. The man answered, "I've brought you a chummy dog." Whereupon the king looked at the dog, and said, "Humph! Doesn't look chummy to me."

JESTER PLAY
(Continued from page two)

Kirby so he proceeds to wrestle with Mr. Kirby.

An additional list of characters this week includes the Infant Joe, of the Hiram and Donald, one of the characters of the Hindhead and boy. Kirby and Joe Cooper who play the G Men representing the Department of Justice.

State Clubs

Miss West stated Thursday that representatives from the following dramatic groups in the state are planning to attend our Jester performance: the Savannah Playhouse, the Marye Little Theatre, the Westport Dramatic Club, the Studio Players of Bayside Jr. and the Albany Little Theatre.

BOOK REVIEW
(Continued from page two)

with Jewish blood coursing through his veins, presents a forceful personality. Regardless of the fact that his home as a scientist in various parts of the world, his life is still a forceful personality. Regardless of the fact that his home as a scientist in various parts of the world, his life is still a forceful personality. Regardless of the fact that his home as a scientist in various parts of the world, his life is still a forceful personality. Regardless of the fact that his home as a scientist in various parts of the world, his life is still a forceful personality.

You'll find that Chesterfields are cooler, better-tasting, and definitely milder... you can buy a better cigarette.