Stevenson Named As Lockett Resigns

Two class offices were filled last week, one by class election, one by appointment, both following resignations.

Franco Cann, president of the sophomore class for the past year, resigned his position and was succeeded by Jane Hudson. Jane’s election by the sophomore class occurred the same week as Franco’s resignation.

Student Council appointed Allen Stevenson to fill the vacancy left by Truonna Lookett’s resignation as Junior representative to Council.

Telegrams Ask Mrs. FDR To Stop on Return Trip

Mrs. F. D. R. herself has been invited to stop by here in her way home from her Florida vacation.

Student Council and the NYA project conceived the idea when looking around for speakers to bring to the campus, and they let no grass grow around.

Two paragraphs and several letters from local educators were sent Mrs. Roosevelt during the weekend inviting her to stop here on her return to Washington after a two-week visit in Grosse Point, near Atlantic. One of the telegrams, Miss Adams said, was sent by her at the request of County Governors Association. The other was sent by officials of the National

Ruth Price Compares Modern Ballet Dances in Interview

The students at the Center are not all graduates of the classics, but are ordinary students—fair, good, same kind, and some expected.

The Dance Center is integral part of the Music Department, and the members put on the dances in the opera which Music Department students. Besides this they give recitals and go on tour.

When questioned as to the difference in Modern Dancing and the aesthetic type of dancing Miss Price said, "Aesthetic dancing is the step-chop, so much of the ballet. The scenes were rather silly and had little class, whereas the modern dance puts meaning into the movement through body lines. This gives a greater depth and meaning to the dance."
Shealey Acclaimed "Mt. GSCW" At Leap Year Beauty Contest

James Dean, 19-year-old "Enfield, And Ohio!" Star, wins what quite a bit by way of changes. The stars were still in the sky, the sun was shining, and the entire Physical Education building boomed with the vigor of a roaring party. The entire freshman class had gathered for the Leap Year Beauty Contest sponsored by the Recreation Association.

In the center of the gym, a large banner hung down from the ceiling, announcing the names of the contestants in the "Miss GSCW" contest. The crowd was electric, the atmosphere was filled with excitement.

One of the highlights of the evening was the selection of the King of G. C. W. Smith, a classic beauty contest. After a thrilling and exciting competition, the winner emerged from the sea of faces, her presence dominating the entire room. The audience was mesmerized by her beauty and grace.

In conclusion, the evening was a grand success, with everyone having a great time. The beauty contest was a testament to the talent and beauty that exists among the students of G. C. W. Smith. The atmosphere was electric, the audience was engaged, and the contest was a true celebration of beauty.

Grooming for Glamour -- Business, Too

So the nation's labor business women can get along well, look good, too! Dressing of the hour at many business offices is the pattern to be more fashionably attired. In one office, the whole office is in its work clothes, patron and speech. Under the direction of costume makers are the actual models of style. Here's what a student's handbook says on the subject of costumes. 'You see what a gal can do with a gal's own hands, and a little bit of ingenuity, and a small wad of money!' term has brought severe criticism from influential leaders in the Democratic party. He has been accused of demoralizing and discrediting the party and of ruining the prospects of other Democratic candidates. The fact that Roosevelt did not withdraw his name from the ballot of the Illinois primary is significant and may indicate his decision to run for a third term.

Other candidates can hardly
