“It Came Upon A Midnight Clear, That Glorious Song of Old...”

Pictured above against organ pipes in the Milledgeville Methodist Church, are reading left to right: Harriette Chick; Olivia Hood, Claudia McCorkle; and Dorothy Mae Burge.

Class, Dorm Parties
Climax Fall Quarter

TERRELL SCENE
OF FRISKY PARTY

Following the formal dinner at Addison dining hall tonight the members of the freshman class will entertain at a Christmas party in Terrell rec. hall.

Each girl has invited a date and the faculty will be represented by Miss Ethel Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Cuy Wells, and Dean and Mrs. Hey Taylor.

After the party the girls will be entertained at pajama parties in their respective dormitories.

BEeson HAS
INFORMAL TEA

Girls of Beeson hall were busily at an informal tea from four to six on Saturday afternoon in Beeson rec. hall roof parlor.

The serving line for the occasion was composed of Mrs. E. C. Branan, dorm mother, the dormitory officers and assistants. Each girl living in Beeson served a good from the student body or the faculty.

Later in the evening the girls exchanged gifts at a pajama party.

The Colonnade

Volume XV. Z-122. Milledgeville Ga., Saturday, December 14, 1940 Number 12

Seniors Swing Out in ‘Hell’
As Plainsmen Play Tonight

Univ. Debaters
Cop Honors

When the members of the Senior class and their dates enter the hall, the opening of the gymnasm for their first class dance, they will step over a serpentine fire made of rocks, red bulbs and burning incense.

Following through on the 'out-of-this-world' theme which has been used by the class for preceding dances, the committee on decorations, chaired by Margie Jones, has organized a miniature replica of the house, complete with beds, wall and windows, a flying gun for the center, a sofa, a bed, a table and chairs, and a brass globe, etc., written from the gift center of the room to a ballroom floor. The dance will be given from the garden center of the room.

Univ. Debaters
Cop Honors

The negative team from the University of Georgia won highest honors in the Georgia Debate Ecumen held here yesterday. The team established a record for the organization, winning all five debates held.

One of the debates which were held in the Music Building was presented by the United States should adopt a permanent federal policy of relief. In addition to the University of Georgia, delegates from Martha Berry, Shorter, North Georgia, West Georgia, Mercer, Georgia Evening School, Atlanta Junior College.

(Continued on page 6)

Acting as dance chairman, Anal

(Continued on page 5)
A Small Event With Mighty Implications

During the past few weeks students of GSCW were glued to their television sets as the events following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were being publicized. The manner in which these events were processed was such that the students were made aware of the great loss and the sense of an imminent threat to our country's future. The manner in which this was done made it easy for the students to visualize the actual situation and to understand the actions that were taken.

The final event in this sequence was the assassination of President Kennedy himself. This event was particularly significant because it was the first time that a sitting President of the United States was killed. The students were able to see the evil that they had been aware of in the past and to realize the danger that was present.

The students were also made aware of the fact that President Kennedy was a hero and that he had been fighting for the good of the country. The students were able to see the value of a strong leader and to understand the importance of the role that the President plays in the government.

The students were also given an opportunity to discuss the events and to express their feelings. The students were able to see that the events were not just a part of history, but that they were also a part of their lives. The students were able to see that the events were a part of their future and that they were a part of the future of the country.

The students were also given an opportunity to participate in the events. The students were able to see that they could make a difference and that they could be part of the solution. The students were able to see that they could be change agents and that they could make a difference in the world.

The students were also given an opportunity to learn more about the events. The students were able to see that the events were complex and that they were not just a series of events. The students were able to see that the events were a part of a larger history and that they were a part of a larger world.

The students were also given an opportunity to see the events from different perspectives. The students were able to see the events from the perspective of the President, the events from the perspective of the students, and the events from the perspective of the world.

The students were also given an opportunity to see the events from different times. The students were able to see the events from the perspective of the present, the events from the perspective of the past, and the events from the perspective of the future.

The students were also given an opportunity to see the events from different places. The students were able to see the events from the perspective of the United States, the events from the perspective of the world, and the events from the perspective of the individual.

The students were also given an opportunity to see the events from different times. The students were able to see the events from the perspective of the past, the events from the perspective of the present, and the events from the perspective of the future.

The students were also given an opportunity to see the events from different places. The students were able to see the events from the perspective of the United States, the events from the perspective of the world, and the events from the perspective of the individual.
DORRIS DISCUSES MEXICO AND DEFENSE

The World Community group, meeting Monday, led by Mrs. Forn Dorris. Her subject was "Pan-American Defense in Regard to Mexico."

Mrs. Dorris discussed Mexico's attitude toward the present situation and the relation between Mexico and the United States at the present.

Univ. Debaters—

(Continued from page 1)

College, Church, and Emory at Oxford participated in the exercises of the day. The debating continued until six o'clock, at which the delegates were entertained at a banquet and dance.

Christmas Greetings

From Paul's Cafe

you won't need a MISTLETOE

If you've been to G&L Beauty Shop for a flattering new hairstyle. It's a big help to make you look desirable and so kiss-able!

G & L BEAUTY SHOP

200 Watch Group
Rainy Day Dance Monday

Approximately 200 dance enthusiasts saw the GSCW Dance Group make its debut Monday night at an informal demonstration in the Physical Education Building. Compositions on various themes were performed by the group. The first was SARABANDE, an obbligato dance from, followed by BUNGLE BELLS, a dance expressing the joyous spirit of Christmas. The subject for the last two compositions was the American Negro. The first depicted the everyday existence of the race and their immediate going into their wild jubilation in worship.

Miss Ethel Turner, adviser of the Group, made quick explanations between the series of pictures which showed the variations in walks, runs and leaps.

The Group will present a festival recital in the Russell Auditorium in the Spring.

After the recital MRS. J. O. Salter

200 Watch Group

MRS. ROGERS WILL PLAY

Mrs. Nancy Rogers will play several organ selections at Vespers for Sunday at 5:45 p.m.

SANTA SAYS:

You'll look better this Xmas with glasses fitted to your features from

DR. S. H. DILLARD

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. See our Beautiful Gifts and Christmas Cards Before You Go

WOOTEN'S BOOK STORE

...give the cigarette that Satisfies

A carton of Chesterfields with their MILDOR BETTER TASTE will give your friends more pleasure than anything else you can buy for the money.

GIFTs for All

Old and Young—

STANTA CLAUSS HEADQUARTERS

Initiated Handkerchiefs for Him—Rose for Her—Nylon, Archer, Kayser and Shannon.

E. E. BELL COMPANY