Annual Barn Dance Slated For Tonight

"All jump up and never come down; swing your partner 'round and 'round." With these instructions students and faculty will be doing at the Barn Dance, sponsored by the Fish club. Approximately 150 people, dressed in platters and sovilleries, are expected to attend the annual affair in the gymnasium, which starts at 7:30. After eating the "Barn" by crawling over stacks of hay, each person will be tased on a pig, a cow, a chestnut, or cat. Each group of yardland animals, in turn, will be mosey upon the dance "Marching Down, to Tooterman and "Frohe a Little Peak."

Mudflap Plays Main Role In College Play

Under the direction of Leon hour, the College Theater has been the producers of "Hedda Gabler" starring Blanda Mul- drohe. The technical liberties for this play will be given December 16 at Keenway. "Hedda Gabler," perhaps the greatest of Henrik Ibsen's plays, is one of the best known and greatest of modern drama, the title role, having been played by Harri B僧ndhardt, Blanda Mul- drohe, Mrs. Keel and various others.

A student play, "Hedda Gabler" is built around the character of the lovely Hedda Gabler, played by Blanche Mul- drohe, and the three members of this show were Althoff, Bessie, and Mrs. Keel. The costumes were wonderful.

Overton To Discuss Personal Relations

Y Institute, Dec. 1-5, Will Be Based On Student's Topics

By Margaret Wilson

Because of the success of the 1949 Institute of Personal Relations, for which Mrs. Grace Elisus Overton was guest speaker, the YWCA has asked her to return to the campus to lead this year's discussions.

Crowder Sings In Audition

Over NBC

Ray Crowder, recently announced winter singer for George in a concert sponsored by Phi Spec- tator, has just been given a solo contract, which will sing over the Honor of States program sometime next month, December 12. The program will be broadcast from coast to coast over NBC's Red network. In this audition, Ray is competing against ten other college students. Three of the original ten will be selected to return to New York to compete. 1:00, The final winner will be named the "most charming voice of 1941 and (Continued on page 3)
Scholastically Speaking

It is desirable, when traveling, to know the purpose of the trip, why it is desirable to make it, and what can be done to make it more worthwhile. So it is important for college, with one of its aims being promoting good scholarship, to understand, in so far as possible, what scholarship is and why it is desirable, the course that interacts with it, and what can be done to encourage it. To gain this, little by little, has been shown to have a profound effect on scholarship. This NYA program is for all students, for all levels. It is designed to help those who wish to develop their scholarship, to encourage them to take a more active role in the college community.

Thank You, God For Kindness

By AMALIJA GROSS

Thank You, God, for all things: For all bright words and shining in the air; For all beauty and pleasing, For all kindness, For all kindness you have given us.

I am grateful because I know how many people and things are in God's favor. I can see all the kind people who have been with me during this year and how much I have been blessed. I am grateful to God for the opportunity to serve. I am grateful for the experience I have had and how much I have learned from it.

In "Fightin' Joe Wheeler" Military Man Is Portrayed

By Dorothy Miller

FIGHTIN' JOE WHEELER by John F. Dyer is the first attempt to portray the career of the most colorful of all America's military men. Mr. Dyer has done a masterful job of depicting the life story of the man who was one of America's greatest military leaders. Mr. Dyer's treatment of the man is both realistic and sympathetic. He captures the spirit of the times and the mood of the nation.

The Church Notes

room (which was against the rules, of course.) They would take turns standing on the floor of the bed to hold the boiler over the gas jets which was their source of heat. An "old lady" was trying to keep her balance, her feet slipped and she lost her balance, spilling the water all over the bed, sheets, floor, and herself. This story has a "guts-with-the-wind" quality; you have to decide for yourself what the outcome for the poor girl was, but no doubt naturally be expected the house mother walked in just as the accident happened.

It has been found that in the days of long ago these bold members of the fair sex "run many courses" that haven't been mentioned here. Will we remember any interesting adventures that will not undermine our reputation in relation to the children of "social generation"?

White, Chaplain, Speaks at Chapel
"We can be sure of one thing. In the United States—we are facing a very uncertain future," stated Leon L. Y. White, chaplain of the Seventh Training Battalion at Camp Wheeler on a meeting of national defense at Chapel Monday. He was present with a large group of officers, of the First Baptist church of Newton, Kansas.

He said that this country shall neglect morale at our peril, and that the problems of morale among the men in training are effects of nationality, learning disabilities, facing uncertainty in life, adjustment to army life, and adjustment of their relatives in the new situation.

A soldier is an attitude, Lieut. White remarked, and not only that, but the girl's care by men.

Officers Elected
For Soph Y Club

Thursday night at the regular meeting of the Sophomore Y club, the following officers for the year were elected: Hazel Sawyer, president; Fran Pasquale, vice-president; Dot Janer, secretary; and Martha Evelyn Hodges, treasurer.

Because of so many conflicts, the club voted to change the time of meeting to 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Temporarily, the meeting will be held in the YWCA office.

The club is planning to present a morning worship service early Thanksgiving morning. Further announcement of this will be made later.
