Sixteenth Additions Made To Faculty

Sixteen new members, coming from various parts of the country, have been added this year to the GSCW faculty.

Edward H. McMillan, professor of music, has been appointed chairman of the planning committee for the New Year program. The meeting for this program was held on Sunday at the Chamberlin Hotel.

During the week of November 4-8, Dr. Wells will attend the National Convention for Teachers of English in Atlanta, in which, according to Dr. Taylor, the New Year program has been announced. The convention will be held at the Hotel North.

Lycceum Speakers Still Unannounced

Lyceum speakers have not yet been announced, but will be shortly. The committee has already received many requests for the speakers.

College Theatre Play for Fall Production

"Mystery of the Moon," a production of "Lutia in Wiltshire," by Cyril Cattell, will be presented by College Theatre November 7 and 9 instead of "Fairy Hill," as previously announced.

The cast includes: Maud, Jean Minner; Una Veddy, Ruth May; Horatio, Robert Wilson, Ann Allen; Phyllis, Florence Clarke; Lord Acton, Sarah Jean Wilters; Octavius, Don; Alfred McLean; Mrs. Dvis, Louise Varley; Polly, Dorothy Blair, Doris Miriam, D. M. Miriam, Isabelle Trotter.

The production staff and the committee in charge, who are the students who were assigned work on the production, are

Dr. English Gets Praise Overseas

Dr. Mildred English has received high commendation for her assistance and cooperation in work in Germany. Dr. English, superintendent of the Peabody Laboratory School, was granted a year's leave of absence, last May, to go to Berlin as head of the Division of Graduate Studies in the U.S. Government's Office of Education.

In charge of teacher-training, Dr. English also solicited the books to be used in the educational work on German children in the Dornberch Experience Group, for which she received the German government's highest honor, the "Bundesverdienstkreuz." She will continue her work next year in Berlin.

Classes Name 'Slipper Leaders'

Golden Slipper general chairmen are Happy Dow, Atlanta, for the freshmen, and Catharine M. Thompson, Jacksonville. Temporary departmental chairmen are David Onslow, chairman of the freshmen; Miss Jean Morris, manager of the department of business administration.

With the announcement of the classes, the senior and junior, and the freshmen of the class, the seniors were named chairman, but have set up boards to work with the class.

The entire chairman list is as follows:

Freshman: Happy Dow, general; Gena Gish, Byrnum, play from the University of Kentucky; Miss Edwin Buchanan, College of Education, is now assistant professor of English. She received her B.A. from Meredith College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Alpha Iota.

Miss Coraline Blyth Myster, Richmond, Va., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She has been Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Alpha Iota, and her M.A. is from the University of New Mexico. Her specialty is in the music of the 18th and 19th centuries. She is a member of the Virginia State Teachers Association.

Miss Julia Lanier, Tampa, Fla., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Blanche Connelly, Tampa, Fla., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Mabel B. Lanier, Richmond, Va., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Blanche Connelly, Tampa, Fla., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Blanche Connelly, Tampa, Fla., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Miss Blanche Connelly, Tampa, Fla., instructor in voice, received her B.A. from Agnes Scott College and an M.A. from the University of New Mexico in 1935. She is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.
THE COLONNADE

A False Spirit Lurks Again

Incarnation — the successive presentations of All Soul Day — which mark the conclusion of American war dead and the day on which the memorials of their names are placed in the Book of Remembrance, are observed with a solemnness and reverence. The ceremonies of the day are marked by the solemn recitation of the names of those who have served and sacrificed for their country.

Dr. Manchester Visits Colleges

Dr. C. E. Manchester, head of the Department of Religious Education in the University of Chicago, visited the American colleges on the American Council of Religious Education's tour of the South. He met with the students and faculty members of the various colleges and discussed the role of religion in the educational process.

Dr. Manchester is a well-known scholar and author in the field of religion and education. He has written extensively on the subject and has delivered numerous lectures and seminars on the topic. His visit to the American colleges is an important event in the field of religion and education.

The COLONNADE

Published every other week during the academic year except during the summer months.

THE COLONNADE

Established May 12, 1879, by the students of the College of Charleston.

Annual Parents Day Postponed "All Spring"

FIVE

Christina
Hanna Jones

Hanna Jones of Detroit is now a writer for the Detroit Free Press. She has been covering local news and events for the paper and has recently been promoted to the position of correspondent. Her coverage includes a wide range of topics, from local politics to sports events.

Miss Henry Named to State Office

Dr. H. H. Williams, President of the College, announced the appointment of Miss Henry as State Office Head. Miss Henry will be responsible for overseeing the operations of the College's State Office, which is located in the downtown area of the city.

Miss Henry was a long-time employee of the College and has held a number of positions in the State Office. She brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the role, and is well-suited to lead the office.

Where Are My Glasses?

"I Just Don't See the Doo-Dahs!"

Miss Henderson's secretarial machine has been on the blink for some time, but she is working on it. She has been busy with her usual duties and has been unable to attend to the machine.

Who's the Man?

"Every good journey is a journey of faith, a journey to discover oneself."

The man in the black suit is no ordinary individual. He is a member of a secret society that has been active for centuries. His true identity is shrouded in mystery, and his motives are unclear. He is known to be a master of disguise and a skilled manipulator.

The man in the black suit has been spotted in various locations around the city, but his true intentions remain unknown. It is unclear whether he is a friend or a foe to the people of the city.

Miss Henderson's secretarial machine has been on the blink for some time, but she is working on it. She has been busy with her usual duties and has been unable to attend to the machine.

Who's the Man?

"Every good journey is a journey of faith, a journey to discover oneself."

The man in the black suit is no ordinary individual. He is a member of a secret society that has been active for centuries. His true identity is shrouded in mystery, and his motives are unclear. He is known to be a master of disguise and a skilled manipulator.

The man in the black suit has been spotted in various locations around the city, but his true intentions remain unknown. It is unclear whether he is a friend or a foe to the people of the city.