4-22-1947

Colonnade April 22, 1947

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation
http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/376

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.
April 26 Set For Sports Day

Sports day comes to GSCW April 26 and brings with it fun and activity for every girl who wishes to participate. Invitations have been extended to as many colleges to send girls to our campus to enter in tournaments of swimming, tennis, volley ball and soft ball.

The University of Georgia, the University of Tennessee, North Carolina College, Mount Holyoke College, Amherst College, Smith, and Mount Holyoke have sent letters of acceptance to the invitation. Each school has been asked to send two girls for tennis, two for volleyball, and two for the two - day games.

One or more faculty members have been invited to accompany the girls. Activities will begin at 11:30 Saturday morning and continue through "Play Night" in the gym. Girls who are unable to return to their school that night might be invited to spend the night in the GSCW dormitories. Special arrangements are made to enable the visiting faculty members.

Six Students Awarded Graduate Scholarship

Graduate school scholarships have been awarded to six GSCW seniors. These girls are: Anna McGowan, Ellen Shyrock, Margaret Shoemaker, Anna King, Brown and Vanderbilt University; Margaret Martin, University of Washington, Yale University, and Wesleyan University; Marion Reiner, Johns Hopkins, English, Edith Lomax, Duke, Foreign Language.

Ann Fagin, Dorothy Newell, Mrs. Lindley and Mrs. LaMotte Mudd have applied for assistance to the University of Georgia Medical School, Augusta.

April 26 Set For Sports Day

Sports day comes to GSCW April 26 and brings with it fun and activity for every girl who wishes to participate. Invitations have been extended to as many colleges to send girls to our campus to enter in tournaments of swimming, tennis, volley ball and soft ball.

The University of Georgia, the University of Tennessee, North Carolina College, Mount Holyoke College, Amherst College, Smith, and Mount Holyoke have sent letters of acceptance to the invitation. Each school has been asked to send two girls for tennis, two for volleyball, and two for the two - day games.

One or more faculty members have been invited to accompany the girls. Activities will begin at 11:30 Saturday morning and continue through "Play Night" in the gym. Girls who are unable to return to their school that night might be invited to spend the night in the GSCW dormitories. Special arrangements are made to enable the visiting faculty members.

Six Students Awarded Graduate Scholarship

Graduate school scholarships have been awarded to six GSCW seniors. These girls are: Anna McGowan, Ellen Shyrock, Margaret Shoemaker, Anna King, Brown and Vanderbilt University; Margaret Martin, University of Washington, Yale University, and Wesleyan University; Marion Reiner, Johns Hopkins, English, Edith Lomax, Duke, Foreign Language.

Ann Fagin, Dorothy Newell, Mrs. Lindley and Mrs. LaMotte Mudd have applied for assistance to the University of Georgia Medical School, Augusta.
We Apologize

The Colonade offers its apologies for the mistakes in the dates of the story concerning the Alpha Cappella Choir trip. Corrected dates are: March 28, concert Violin, C.G., Baptist Church; March 29, concert, Central, Ga., Methodist Church; March 30, concert, Waycross, Ga., First Baptist Church; March 31, April 29 and 30 to attend the state high school literary meet to see the state plays.

Weley Foundation Schedules Retreat

The Wesley Foundation Council will hold its annual retreat at Columbus, April 20-25, to make plans for next year. Rev. and Mrs. Perry, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. J. Beall, and Mrs. C. C. Smith will attend the retreat.

Edith Lewis Elected To State "Y" Office

Edith Lewis was elected Conference Treasurer at the state YMCA-YWCA conference held at Athens, March 11, 15, and 15. Other officers elected were Virginia King, Shorter, president; Bishop Farris, University of Georgia, vice-president; Gladys Keller, Waycross, secretary; Will L. Lomm, Georgia Tech, publicity chairman; Charles Commander, Georgia Tech, faculty adviser.

D. E. Club Names New Officers

Marvin Root, Daniel, Griffin, has been elected president of the Distributive Education Club for the next year. Other officers elected include: Kelser Cofer, Baxley, vice-president; Helen Whitaker, Baxley, secretary; and Marshall Turner, Purcell, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed at a meeting to be held May 4, while the DE Club is spending a week-end at Lake Laurel, Georgia.

Beta Alpha Club Elects New Officers

The Beta Alpha Club elected officers at a meeting April 16, elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing school year: James Lane, president; Olivia Brown, vice-president; Roy Hollis, secretary; and Banksfield, treasurer.

Plans were made at a meeting, April 16, for delegates from the Beta Alpha Club to attend a state conference of college business organizations at the Georgia Teachers College, Statesboro. Dr. Fuller, GSCW club advisor, will serve as advisor to the state constitutional committee, and the GSCW Beta Alpha Club will be represented on the state nominating committee. Students attending the conference are Frances Wimbush, Frances Lane, and Katy McNeely.

The Beta Alpha Club is also planning an all day trip to Lake Laurel, April 24.