Judiciary Seeks To Rehabilitate, Help Students Adjutant To College Life
Ever since the issue of its own, judiciary has had as its main purpose, not punishment or revenge, but rehabilitation. The members of judiciary are interested in each and as an individual and as a member of the college group. They under- stand the difficulty that many girls face when they attempt to make their simple lives fit into this large and complex college life. And he members of judiciary want to help.

This year judiciary is trying a different approach in its effort to help every student make a satisfactory adjustment to her college environment. It is trying in every way to work in close cooperation with the Dormitory Council. In the past judiciary has been content merely to supervise the organization of the Dormitory Council and to send a number of members to serve in the capacity of a court advisor. Now judiciary is trying to instill its interest in the individual into the Dormitory Council. The members of judiciary are trying to help the dormitory officers serve more as counselors than as members of a court. They want the dormitory officers to take a personal interest in each student in the dormitory: to make their work preventive rather than punitive; and to actually help those girls who find it difficult to live in the Group. (Continued on Page 7)

The members of Judiciary and the members of the Dormitory Council were to be regarded by the student body, not as police officers, but as student counselors whose duty is to see that all of us live together happily. As a result of their work they want to see students believe, body of officers who are interested in their fellow students and who feel responsible for helping them.

Offenders might be prevented from committing the same mistakes by determining if it is an individual or if it is a systemic problem of group life. 'You CAN UNDERSTAND YOUR PERSONALITY

Do you know what you have been doing? No? No? Why, you must have been doing something, haven't you? The only point here is that you don't know what you've been doing, and that's bad. You need to understand your personality to function properly."
