Classes Announce Slipper Chairmen For Coming Event

By almost General Slipper, time again at GSCW. This annual contest, designed to discover, dress up, and choose the prettiest and most perfect of the GSCW Department, will be held this year on November 30. Chairmen and committee heads for the event have been announced. They are: Debbie Hammond, freshman chairman; Petry Montana, sophomore; Judy Taylor, junior; and Mary Ellen Butler, senior. Petry and Judy will work under the direction of Debbie, while Betty and Mary will work together.

GSCW Holds Meeting At GSCW Nov. 12

GSCW will be honored to members of the Georgia Federation of College Women on November 10. Leo Crawford, president of the Federation, will preside at all of the meetings.

The Scholarship Ball is This Weekend!

THE COLLEAGUE

Hammond, Cook, Evans, McLendon
Dean Contend For Frosh Presidency

Mr. Janis

Byron Janis, Musician, To Appear Here Wednesday Night

Byron Janis, 25-year-old pianist, will be featured on the GSCW concert series Wednesday, November 10, at 8:20 in Russell Auditorium. His appearance here is sponsored by the Millierville Community Concert Association founded by Father John T. Doomey.

Mr. Janis, now in his second year at the Juilliard School of Music, has already appeared in concerts throughout the United States. He received his initial training in music at the age of six, and has performed in various recitals and concerts since then. His parents encourage his musical education and pride their ability to give him the best possible instruction.

Sims, Minner To Head 1948-49 Coral

Betty Jane Simmons has been elected editor of the Millierville Communi- cate, and Minner, Minner was chosen business manager. Roberta Dugan was elected as circulation manager.

Other new members of the staff include: Ann B. Barlow, assistant editor; Polly Ireland, sales and circulation manager; and Minnie Fields, assistant circulation manager.

Mrs. Hulse, Fields is the faculty advisor for the Millierville Communicate.

THE OFFICIAL VOICE OF GSCW STUDENTS

November 2, 1948

Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga.
Vol. 23, No. 2

Freshman Class To Elect Officers Today; Runners To Be Thursday

Elections for freshman class officers will be held today. Runners will be held Thursday.

Couple To Present Exhibit Here Nov. 12

A joint exhibition of the works of Georgia artists, Thos. T. Rose, GSCW graduate, and her husband, Howard Rose, will be shown in the Porter Fine Arts building for the two weeks, beginning November 12.

Mrs. Thomas is a native of Rochester, N. Y.; she graduated from GSCW with a two year diploma in 1922; received her B.A. degree from GSCW in 1925, and her B.S. degree from Georgia State University in 1927.

Mrs. Thomas has taught art at women's college of Florida, University of Michigan, California, University of Georgia, and the Rhode Island School of Design. She is a member of СВАац, a national organization of art educators. She was a member of the faculty of the State Teachers College, Miami, in 1945. She is a member of the Beta Sigma Pi, a national art honorary society, and is a member of the Southern Regional Art League. She is a member of the Southern Regional Art League. She is a member of the Southern Regional Art League.

Mr. Thomas is a native of broccoli, N. Y., and received his education at Ohio State University, Cleveland Institute of Art, University of Cincinnati, and the University of Chicago. He is a member of the National Women's Art Council, and the University of Georgia, Agnes Scott, and various other organizations.

AWARDS

Among his many awards are: Atlanta Magna Society, President, 1949; first prize, watercolor, 1946; and second prize, watercolor, 1947. He is a member of the National Women's Art Council, and the University of Georgia, Agnes Scott, and various other organizations.

Mr. Janis, now in his second year of music on the GSCW program at the age of 16, has already performed in various recitals and concerts since then. His parents encourage his musical education and pride their ability to give him the best possible instruction.

The exhibit will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., weekdays, and from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday.

APPLICATION HOUR

Because of various other activities, applications for admission will be discontinued until December 1, 1948. All applications must be postmarked by that date. Miss Binger of the office will give the application for admission to the office.

Tobacco, basketball, and tennis will be offered. Football, basketball, and tennis will be offered.

Candidates for president were: Betty Jean Hammond, Atlanta, who attended Hampton High School, where she was a cheerleader, worked with YWCA, drama club, and school paper; Betty Jean Cook, Chambers, winner of the State Home Economics Contest in 1946. She was a member of the Beta Sigma Pi in her community for the past year; Patsy Evans, Brunswick, and Phyllis Haldeman, Academy head and state tennis champion of the year; Betty Jean Baille, Fitzgerald, winner of the awards in essay writing and editor of her school newspaper.

Byrne Dean, Decatur, worked on the school newspaper and school yearbook. She was a member of Student Council and the Athletic Council.

Vice-President

Nomination for vice-president was: Linda Buck Delanor, president of the athletic council at Girls High, winner of the southeast championship, two state titles, and three city titles in swimming; Betty Ann Baille, Brunswick, who attended Academy; and Miss Stephanie, Aarons, who attended State University, community, and was a member of the Beta Club.

The three girls chosen for vice-presidents are: Betty Maye, Waycross, plays basketball and tennis, and is a member of the club basketball.

Treasurer

Nominee for treasurer was: Betty Maye, Waycross, plays basketball, is a member of the Beta club and interested in creative. Ann Garrett, Statesboro, worked on school paper and was a member of the literary society.

Judiciary Representative

A representative of the judiciary will be chosen, from: Carol Snow, Brunswick, who attended Academy, and Carol Haltom, Coral Gables, who attended school and club work; Paula Biddle, Washington, who attended school and club work; Paula Biddle, Washington, who attended school and club work; Paula Biddle, Washington, who attended school and club work; Paula Biddle, Washington, who attended school and club work.
A Letter From The Editor

October 22, 1968

Dear Colonel,

The Colonna德 is a little too busy for me to take all three weekends, but she says GSCW is still here already.

Eloise Smith Arrives Here From Germany To Begin Studies

Eloise Smith, a new student, arrived here from Germany to begin studies.

Dormitory Officers For Year

The dormitory officers for the year have been elected as follows:

President: Betty Green
Vice-President: Betsy Good
Secretary: Kay Goodland
Treasurer: John Goodland

Some of the men standing for the Student Senate elections are:

J. A. Smith, B. J. Green, B. J. Good, J. H. Good, B. J. Beale, and J. B. Smith.

REW Brings Outstanding Leaders Here For Seminars, Discussions

Pellish, Octoberv 24th, brought out two outstanding Cheurson leaders, the Rev. James C. Edwards, Dr. B. D. Logan, the Rev. James Smith, the Rev. John Smith, and the Rev. John Miller. These men conducted seminars, discussions, and personal conferences in the theme, "We Shall Build!"

McMILLAN'S SERVICE CONVENTION

Conveniently Located on

Wilma Street—Next to

Protective Cleaners

FREE DELIVERY
THE COLLEGNADE
November 9, 1948

West Announces
New Members
For 'Call It A Day'

Miss Edna West has announced new additions to the cast of "Call It A Day," which will be presented here by the College Theatre this semester.

Dr. M. F. Nunn, who has appeared in two previous College Theatre productions, will portray Frank Haines in this comedy. Dr. Nunn is on the staff of the State Hospital.

Major Frank H. Kaler, a member of the College student body and John Carter, assistant professor of speech at GSCW, have been added to the faculty of the College Theatre. Mr. Kaler teaches English at GSCW.

Charles Smith will direct "Call It A Day." He played the role of Atlantic Brown.

Auburn Players To
Appear Here Nov. 12

The Auburn Players will present "The Imaginary Invalid" by Moliere here on Nov. 12. The cast includes junior college students from Auburn University and Willingboro, N. J.

Luminaries

faculty-forecast

President Guy Wells will address the Dublin P.T.A. on November 7.

"Fiddler on the Roof" will be presented by the College Theatre on November 19.

Auburn Players To
Appear Here Nov. 12

The Auburn Players will present "The Imaginary Invalid" by Moliere here on Nov. 12. The cast includes junior college students from Auburn University and Willingboro, N. J.

"Between takes of my new picture, THE LUCK OF THE IRISH, I enjoyed many CHESTERFIELDS.

They're M milder... It's My cigarette.

"Tyrope Power"

STARRING IN THE LUCK OF THE IRISH A FIFTH CENTURY PRODUCTION

Kay Jean Johnson

ABC GRILL of Ohio State

"I smoke Chesterfields because they have a fine taste all their own and stay regularly MILD from one end to the other."