Penguin Club
Gives Wafer

Pageant Monday

Copied turned quackish Monday night and tonight at GSCW, when the Penguin Club presented its annual pageant, "Moments of Mirth and Merriment," it was a big hit with the crowd present. The theme for the proceedings was a series of "moments of mirth and merriment." The pageant featured a series of short skits, each of which was based on a different aspect of the club's activities. The evening was filled with laughter and joy, as the members of the club celebrated their achievements and enjoyed each other's company. The event was a great success, and the participants were thrilled with the response of the audience. The next pageant will be held on November 15. The schedule for the evening is as follows:

10:00—Registration for Spring Quarter
10:30—Social Science 101-104
11:10—First period classes
12:30—Second period classes
1:00—Third period classes
1:30—Fourth period classes
2:00—Fifth period classes
2:30—Sixth period classes

Students Go To Polls Today For Heads Of CGA, Y, And Rec

WSSF Drive Opens

February 20

During the week of February 20 a campus-wide drive will be sponsored by all the organizations and departments for the World Student Service Fund. The drive will be held on February 20 and 21.

On Monday, February 21, Miss Marcus, regional secretary to WSSF and Herbert Reuter, German student at Emory, will visit the student organizations in Germany and the world service fund.'s offices will receive the leadership of the drive.

On Monday evening, two contests will be held:

1. A competition for the best "Letter to Destiny" and "This Is Their Story," will be shown at 6:15.

2. A competition for the best "Letter to Destiny" and "This Is Their Story," will be shown at 6:15.

For more information, please contact the World Student Service Fund office in the basement of the Student Union.

Group To See Martha Graham Performance
In Atlanta Feb.

Forty-two people from GSCW will attend the Martha Graham performance in Atlanta at the Tower Theater on February 23.

Twenty-five members of the Modern Dance Club on campus, members of the Modern Dance Club in the Atlanta area, and several faculty members will be on hand to attend the performance. The group will be led by members of the Modern Dance Club on campus.

Miss Graham, who is making her first performance in Atlanta, is considered one of the world's foremost exponent of modern ballet. She led the modern ballet company for many years. She created a new ballet in 1929. She is known for her innovative and unique style.

Miss Graham's belief in the power of dance to express emotions and ideas is evident in her works. Her dances are a form of communication that transcends language and culture.

The group will be accompanied by the Modern Dance Club on campus. The club, which was founded in 1930, is dedicated to the study and practice of modern dance. The club is open to all students on campus. The group will be led by members of the Modern Dance Club on campus.

Chapel Programs

February 12, Dr. Marvin B. Pittman will speak on the experience of service in Korea.

February 21, The V will present a student service fund program.

February 25, President Lloyd A. Roll of Middle Georgia College will speak on the job market.

February 26, Preparation for the Job Market will be presented by the Business Club.
A Letter From Jessie Belle

Dear Editor-

I thought you might be interested in hearing some news from my deepest heart. I've been feeling very sad lately, and I've decided to write to you about it.

It all started when I received a letter from my dear friend Emily yesterday. She mentioned that she was planning to visit us next month, and I couldn't wait to see her again. But then, just as I was about to reply, I realized that Emily had been living in a different city for the past two years. I was overwhelmed with emotion.

I've always looked forward to seeing Emily, but now it seems like we might not be able to catch up in person. It's such a bittersweet feeling. I feel so lonely and disconnected, and I don't know what to do.

I've been trying to distract myself by working on some projects and spending time with my family, but it's not helping much. I just can't shake this sadness.

I wanted to share this with you because I think it's important to talk about feelings and reach out to others when we're feeling down. It's okay to be vulnerable and ask for help when we need it. Sometimes, just sharing our struggles can make everything feel a little bit better.

Jessie Belle

We'd Like To Know-

We want to know if there are any people on the campus who like to write letters every single night, but sometimes find it a bit redundant.

If there are, we'd love to hear from you.

We wonder-

The clock strikes twelve and the campus falls silent. Wondering if the students are all asleep or if they're still awake, working on their assignments. What do they think about and dream about as they drift off to sleep?

A Note Of Thanks-

Thanks to the Community Concert Series for being such a great support for our local musicians. They presented an excellent program, and we all enjoyed it. It was such a lovely evening, and I hope more events like this will continue to be held.

Now all we'd like to ask is how you're feeling and what you're doing these days. It's always good to hear from you.

We'll keep an eye out for you and hope to see you soon.
Baptist Students Hold Annual Banquet Feb. 19

The annual Baptist Student banquet will be held in the college cafeteria on February 19th at 6:30 p.m. The guest speaker at the banquet will be Rev. Emerson, Baptist student secretary of the University of Georgia in Athens. The theme for the evening will be "Mother Goose." Old King Cole, Stevie Brumgart, will be the master of ceremonies. Mother Goose herself will be there with various other nursery rhymes. The program includes a call on "Back to Nursery Rhyme Days," an old fashioned horse shop quartet of GMC boys, and a4th song.

Baptist Student Union delegates from Mercer University, Georgia Tech, and the University of Georgia will be present. D. B. Nicholson, who is the director of BSS in Georgia will also attend.

Treasurer Whaler is social chairman for the event. Lett Roberson and Elmo Lofrsey are in charge of flowers. Other chairman are:
- Town students: Charles Davis, secretaries; Dot Robinson and Charles Allen, program; Kitty Colmer, publicity; Lee Vernie Wemple, hostess, Betty Bays, program; Gloria Rush and Steve Brumgart, invitations.
- Colomndae: Immediately after the banquet there will be a party in the Student Center. There will be games, refreshments, and a presentation of a puppet show, "Farther Grumble."

Colonade To Send Three Delegates To GCPA Conference

Three delegates from campus will attend a meeting of the Georgia College Press Association at the University of Georgia in Athens February 18-19. Colomndae representatives to the conference will be Betty Edlin, editor; Polly Bowman, news editor; and Dot Turman, make-up editor. The delegates will attend a banquet Friday night and round-table discussions Saturday.

Officers of GCPA are Jim Cowan, former president; Mary Elene Mathews, Middle Georgia College, vice-president; and Betty Edlin, GCMS, secretary.