Emory Professor To Receive Herty Award Saturday

On May 1, Westover, the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Lindsay, will again be the scene of a luncheon to honor the Herty Award. It has been estimated that five hundred guests will be present at the tea, which is to last from 3 oclock until 4:30 oclock p.m. in the program.

Second will be a supper on the front campus of GSCW of which the student body, faculty, and Herty Day guests will attend.

Following the lecture which will again at Russell Auditorium at 7:30, there will be a presentation of the Herty Award. The banquet will be presented this year by Dr. Colleen R. Quixote, who is the president of the Chemistry Club at Emory University.

Immediately following the lectures and presentations of awards will be a tea on the tennis courts for the entire student body, which will last until 1:00. Refreshments will be served by members of the chemistry club.

The banquet will bring the 1949 Herty Day to its close.

OFFICERS of the Chemistry Club are Drolon Simpson, president; Mary Beth, vice-president; Anne Requa, secretary; Lois Bix Worley, corresponding secretary; and Ann Petersen, treasurer.

Rules Announced

Dr. B. L. Smith, Atlanta publishing house executive for the Methodist Church, was the speaker at the annual Wesley Foundation program here on April 28 and May 1.

Dr. Smith spoke at the banquet Saturday night in the recreation center of the Methodist Church, and also spoke at the services there on Sunday.

Dr. Smith was formerly the editor of the Christian Advocate, but has been since September, one of the publishing officers of the Methodist Church, as well as a native of Richison, Kan. He is nationally known as a public speaker and lecturer. He was ordained in 1927 as "one of the best representatives preaching in the West."

The annual program opened on Friday night, April 28, with an Oriental Concert at which Miss Mary Eulalii Zeh of Honolulu, Mrs. Ch IW, Miss Chinkoug Kwok and Miss Chinkou Kwok gave a musical program of songs and dances.

On Saturday night the annual banquet was held, its theme being "Maharaja Ghatia." The program was introduced by Rev. W. W. Byington, executive director of Wesley Foundation.

The Sunday church service was in charge of the students, with Miss Marie Lee Stewart of Summer as chairman.

Terrell Girls Honor Adams And Micks At Tea

The social function for Terrell girls this quarter was held Sunday evening, May 1, in the form of a faculty tea in honor of retiring Dean Ethel Adams and Dr. Frances Hicks.

Members of the faculty were entertained by the girls in the dormitory from four o'clock in the afternoon.

Birdie Johnson was chairman of the affair and in charge of the committee work. Every girl took part in the helping to entertain the faculty.

Wilmere Nicholson was chairman of the refreshment committee. According to her the committee was fortunate in having the "able assistance of Mrs. Georgia Wallace," the house mother, in making the punch and delicacies which we served.

Judy Taylor was in charge of the receiving line.

Spring formulas were worn by all the girls attending in serving and entertaining.

League Of Women Voters Unites With Town Chapter

The League of Women Voters held their meeting on Wednesday evening, May 8, in the home of Mrs. Earnestine Chalmers, president, in charge.

Mrs. Donald MacKenzie attended the meeting as a representative of the Milford chapter of League of Women Voters. The college and local group have decided to unite to make a more successful chapter.

The members will go on a retreat at Lake Latour on May 10 and 11.

The newly elected officers of the organization are: Dorothy Boyd, president, Rosie; Betty Jean Lamb, vice-president, Mar- con; Polly Brainy, secretary, Lawrenceville; Betty Toppel, treasurer, Milford; Jean and Joan Robertson, Norcross; and Karen Wood, Summerville, board members.

Two Dorms Plan Picnic Outings

The girls of Bell Annex are eagerly looking forward to a spring outing set for Saturday, May 14. On this date the girls of the dormitory along with their house master, Mrs. H. M. Ocheltroom, will climb into their car and head for Lake Jesup. A wonderful day will be enjoyed out at the lake, with games, swimming, food, and drinks furnished.

TERRILL PLANS

The girls in Terrill B and C are counting the days till May 14. This has been the date selected for the spring social. Instead of the usual dance, there is planned a trip to Lake Latour.

Carolyne Daniels, president of B and C, has announced that plans have been made for work to furnish transportation.
