Iff you’re a parent, you’re probably wondering about your child’s future. Do you want them to go to college, or to pursue other career paths? It’s a question parents ask themselves all the time.

And now, it’s time to share some exciting news: Our campus has produced several outstanding students, and we’re proud to announce the following recognitions:

- The Campus Morals Investigated by National Magazine: Are college campuses immune to immorality?
- The Annual Honors Day program: T hree students and one alumna were honored.
- The Poppy Anchor dedication in Russell Auditorium.

These students and alumna have achieved great success and have been recognized for their contributions.
