NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC WILL Publish GCW, And Milledgeville

By SHIRLEY LAGERLUND

There was a great deal of excitement out on front campus last Thursday. The reason was Mr. Wallace and his camera. Mr. Wallace is a photographer and reporter for the MACV magazine. He had been researching a story on Georgia which will include pictures and articles about GCW and the University. For the entire Tuesday and Wednesday Mr. Wallace took various pictures of the campus areas and scenes. On Thursday he returned to the campus and took a tour of the campus again. Mr. Wallace was very pleased with the pictures he took and is looking forward to the final products.

Hande And Voices

Kept Busy During
State Music Festival

April 5, 9, and 10 found the student body very active in the various activities of the State Music Festival. The festival was sponsored by the Georgia High School Music Association. The students were kept busy preparing for the festival, taking part in the various events, and providing the best representation of the school.

First College Day

To Honor Ralph McAll

College Day, which is a combination of Honors Day and Parents Day, was held on April 24. The theme of the day was "Awards for Distinguished Service to Georgia," and Ralph McAll was awarded the first Award of Honor. The awards were presented by the president of the Association of Georgia Women Lawyers and Justice, Dr. Helen Greeson of the GCW alumnae, and the State University of Georgia. Two awards were presented to Ralph McAll, one for his work in the field of education and the other for his work in the field of law.

Prospects Look Good For Repeal Of Dressing Rule

The repeal of the dress regulations by the Student Council, which took effect on April 1, is expected to have a positive effect on the morale of the student body. The regulations, which were criticized by many students, have been removed. The new regulations will allow students to wear clothing that is more in keeping with the current fashion trends. The repeal of the regulations is expected to have a positive effect on the morale of the student body.
Yankee Overwhelmed By South's Suddenly Preeminent SC

In sports the South is raping the North, and in politics the North is raping the South, and in education the South is raping the North, and in commerce the South is raping the North, and in the arts the South is raping the North, and in the sciences the South is raping the North.

But in the future, the North will be raping the South, and in every field of human endeavor, the North will be raping the South. The South will be raping the North, and the North will be raping the South.

And in every field of human endeavor, the North will be raping the South. The South will be raping the North, and the North will be raping the South.

And in every field of human endeavor, the North will be raping the South. The South will be raping the North, and the North will be raping the South.

And in every field of human endeavor, the North will be raping the South. The South will be raping the North, and the North will be raping the South.

Harry Bradley Resigns As Head Of Peabody School

Harry E. Bradley, for the past year director of the Peabody Laboratory school of OSCW, has announced his resignation to accept a position on the faculty of Beloit College at Beloit, Wis. Mr. Bradley will continue as a member of the OSCW faculty through the summer session and will help in the new work in the fall.

The head of the Peabody School came here a year ago as a successor to Miss Mildred English who is working in Germany. No announcement has been made naming a successor to Mr. Bradley.

A University of Texas student finding that his expenses were far outrunning his income, decided to go into the used book business. Where did he set up shop? Right in front of the campus' two main book stores.

Herring Paintings Being Shown In Porter Gallery
An exhibition of paintings by Frank Herring, being opened Tuesday, April 8, in the Porter Hall art gallery and will continue through April 17. The gallery will be open during the day as well as in the evening, and all students and the public are invited to view the paintings. Mr. Herring, a professionally known painter, is professor and director of the summer art school in Burnsville, N. C., known as the Burnsville Pottery Center. He maintains a studio in Millersville and conducts painting classes here during February, March, and April.

Mr. Herring's paintings hang in public and private collections in 15 states. Among his more recent portrait studies was one of General Lew- is Collins, Army Chief of Staff, which hangs at Fort Benning.

Another is of Miss Ethel Adams, former dean of women.

In January he had a one-man show at St. Petersburg, and has had similar shows in New York, along the Eastern seaboard, and in Atlanta, Mobile, Savannah, Mi-

Women At Tech
(Rumor from Red and Blue)
The recent move of Wieland, which made Georgia Tech a co-educational institution should be of help toward the unification of the University.

Specifically stated in the act is a regulation limiting certain courses and fields of study from women instructors to Tech.

"The regents said the women can study "engineering and related work."

The regents said they were interested in the university.

Just a little reminder to all of you football that softball practice is still in full swing. Be sure and let those three practices in so that you can help your dormitory and class win in the tournament.

The O.A.P.C.W. annual play off will be held this year April 16, at the University of Georgia. This girls will be invited to represent OSCW in the following sports: swimming, tennis, archery, volleyball, softball, and badminton.

Last week the Modern Dance Club was sponsored in Tuscaloosa and Augusta. From what we hear they really had a wonderful time and were a huge success.

All the skil clubs are now busy working on their demonstrations which will be presented on College Day.

Last week-end Box Re-treat was a huge success. New plans have been made for the coming year. Some changes were made in the point system. The life guards for the pool will now get 35 points per hour instead of the present 10 points.

Next Fall freshman will be respected to assist the managers of the three major sports.

It was decided that publicity was one of the weak spots of the organization. So keep on the Bea. Center because it will change ever few weeks.

Wesley Foundation Plans Dublin Retreat

The Millisville chapter of the Wesley Foundation will hold a retreat on the 20th and 21st of April. Dublin has been chosen as the site for this gathering.

On the preceding weekend, April 18th and 19th, the state organization of the Wesley Foundathey. Wesley Foundation urges all of the council members and the members of this group to attend the retreat, have fun, and help make plans for the coming events.
