To The High School Students

So now, it is several years after your advanced education, and you are doing the things that you enjoy doing, and the things that you don't enjoy doing, without a care in the world. You may say college is a thing of the past, and it is in some ways, but it is also a thing of the present. This week's edition of "The Colonnade" is special because it is focused on the present and the future. It is about what you are doing now, and what you might be doing in the future.

The Colonnade wants to welcome you to the end of the week. We are your service. We will strive to provide you with the best possible experience. The Colonnade will be with you for the next several years, and we will make sure that you know that we care.
