Seven Versatile Girls
Phoenix Members
The general belief that all scholars are bookworms has been disproved by the selection of the new set of senators to Phoenix, the highest scholastic honor society on our campus.

The members are chosen solely on their academic records and will be recognized officially on Honor Day, May 8th, when present of GSCW students and other guests are assembled to spend the day on the campus.

The honor rank of new Phoenix members is as follows: Lucy Davis, Drusilla Houston, Alice Brown, who is active in the A Cappella Choir, is president of the International Relations Club and of the Chemistry Club.

Estelle Cruton, a business major, who is active in the A Cappella Choir, is president of the International Relations Club and of the Chemistry Club.

Drusilla Houston, a business major, who is active in the A Cappella Choir, is president of the International Relations Club and of the Chemistry Club.

HONORS DAY
To Have Varied Program
A varied program featuring all phases of college life has been planned for Honor Day on May 8.

The morning program will consist of the presentation of members of Phi Sigma and Phoenix and the presentation of an honor album to Dr. Louise Smith. The A Cappella Choir will render special music after which GSCW's Distinguished Service Award will be presented to Dr. Philip Wellner by President Blakeslee.

The afternoon program begins at 1:30 p.m. with a fashion demonstration by the Physical Aesthetics Club, to follow the afternoon program, 1:30 p.m. will be presented by Dr. Philip Wellner by President Blakeslee.

We Welcome You

Welcome, Welcome. Welcomes the very warmest welcome we can. We hope you have brought your friends with you and they should be shown around campus and that you are very happy and that you are very glad to be here.

What is Honors Day?

Honors Day is an important occasion on GW. It is a day when we have voluntarily or involuntarily made great advances in our knowledge and understanding of the world. We have celebrated Honors Day in all sorts of ways, but one thing is sure, there will be plenty of students just sitting in the sun and having a good time.

Your College Record

As the high school prepared to leave the campus on Tuesday morning, the students prepared their bags and were happy to be off campus and on their way to college. This was the last day of the semester and they were excited to get started on the next one.

The Liberally Educated Man

When opening the book to the school's catalog, a report prepared by the school's financial aid and scholarship office, the Liberally Educated Man's story is told. The book is filled with interesting stories and biographies of famous people who have been educated at the school.

The College Government Speaks

Our college government consists of the students, faculty, and administration. The students are elected to serve as council representatives and are responsible for making decisions that affect the college.

Y'S Owl

A reader has been starting to keep track of the many owls in the area. The owl is a common bird in the area and can be seen in various parts of the city. The reader has been keeping track of the owls and has noticed a pattern in their behavior.

Our Famous Barbecue and Mrs. Dupree

Barbecue will be served on campus on Wednesday, March 16, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the courtyard. Students and faculty are welcome to attend.

The Ultimate Value
Loving-kindness is the better part of goodness. It lends grace to the lesser qualities of which life consists and makes it a little less difficult to practice those minor virtues of self-control and self-restraint, patience, discipline and tolerance, which are the passive and not very exhilarating elements of goodness. Goodness is the only value that seems in this world of appearances to have reached so common-place a conclusion. With my method for effect I should have liked to end my book with some startling and premonitory announcement or with a criticism that my readers would have recognized with a chuckle as characteristic. It seems I have little more to say than can be read in any copy-book or heard from any pulpits. I have gone a long way round to discover what everyone knew already.

SARI NEWS

The Sigma Alpha Iota Chapter of OSGCH sponsored a supper at Lake Louis Saturday night, April 24. The supper was given in honor of the senior members who will be leaving this May, and as a welcome to the new members who were initiated April 17.

After the supper and following a talk of pleasant fellowship, a meeting was held between old officers and new officers who have been elected. The new officers are as follows: president—Rose Kell; vice-president—Sally Church; secretary—Ann Howard; treasurer—Ann Bell, Chaplain, Bandsman boy, editor—Kena Masch, organist-at-large—Virginia House.

Members who will graduate are Laura Del Ippoliti, Barbara Thompson, Paty Thomas, Natalie Harrison, and Louise McKnight.

R: I suppose you think I'm a perfect size.
S: Gridy—Oh, well none of us is perfect.

Miss Padgett Receives Art Award

Miss Marie Padgett, head of the art department, has received an award for distinguished participation in American Art Week, held in November.

The award was presented by the National Executive Committee of the American Artists Professional League. Georgia placed third out of 35 states and territories in the competition during American Art Week.

The state slogan, “Buy an Original” was adopted in Milligeville to “Be an Original.” Working with Miss Padgett on the activities of art week were Mrs. Flavita Overstreet of Millidgeville and the art students at OSGCH.

Included in the program for the week were a flower show, a demonstration of painting by Frank Stanley Hering, several films on painting and flower arrangements, slides, an exhibit of crafts and paintings, and a display of work done in the Millidgeville Schools. There was too much for words.

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu, social science fraternity has announced its new members. Dr. Henry King Stanford of the faculty and Barbara Robinson, Thelma Je Craig, Barbara Anna Craig, Robert Gwinn, Margaret Ann Field, Inezmae Rinehart, Mary Virginia Meeks, and Shirley Hapton from the student body.

SCHOLARSHIP DINNER

Continued from Front Page by the modern dance and tumbling dolls and a scene to depict religious life on the campus. A fashion show and other activities will also be highlighted on the program.

The Honors Day tea will be held on a 4 to 6 clock at the Manor, with AAW and Delta Rho members serving as hostesses. Students have the privilege of going home with their parents after 6 p.m. when the official program ends. There will be no Friday classes due to the Long Week-end.

The hospital put the beautiful flowers in a room by itself. She was too cute for words.
