Goodbye Senior!

Senior Week began with a tearful note as the Seniors recited for the last time, with their 31 sisters at a party given by the Delta Tau Delta Sorority at 12 Madison. The theme was "The Sky Is the Limit," and the party was for the seniors who will graduate at the end of this year. The seniors were dressed in black and white, and the theme was "The Sky Is the Limit." The party was a huge success, and everyone had a great time. The seniors were able to share their memories and say goodbye to their friends. The party was a great way to end Senior Week, and everyone was sad to see the seniors go. Vacation

Senior Code Influences

G.S.C.W.

The Senior Code of Honor, as we know it today, is the final stage of the development of the Senior Code. It is a code of ethics that the seniors are expected to follow. It is based on the principles of respect, responsibility, and integrity. By following the Senior Code, seniors are able to maintain their position as leaders of the class and as role models for younger students.

What's Happening To The Seniors

A few months ago there were many anxious faces seen on campus. The most popular question among Seniors was, "Have you got a job yet?" Some have not gotten their choice, and many have only applied on the dotted line. Among those who will be teaching in the Georgia schools are: Anna Morton, Atlanta; Mary White, Atlanta Public Schools; Mary C. Lewis, Georgiaville; Mary Y. Brown, Griffin; Betty C. Johnson, Atlanta; Professor, Adel; and especially, in the field of music, Hazel Smith, Atlanta and Mary C. Early, Dunwoody.

All So Quickly

It's now, we are living but yes, to almost gone none—another year has passed so quickly, the year 1954. This has been a year of transition for most of us. We have left behind our teenage years and are now facing the challenges of adulthood. This year has been a year of growth and development.

During this year, we have experienced a change in our personality and roles. We have left behind our childhood years and are now living our lives as adults. This has been a year of change, and we have all had to adjust to these changes.

This year has been a year of growth and development.
We have all had to adapt to these changes and are now living our lives as adults.

Looking back at the year, we can see how far we have come.
We have all grown and developed, and we can see how our lives have changed over the past year.

But as we move forward into the future, we must remember that life is full of challenges and changes. We must be prepared to face these challenges and changes, and we must be prepared to adapt to them.

We must be prepared to face the challenges of life.
Alumnae To Add ’54 Class to Ranks

by Sylvia McCue

Every year about the first of May, the GWC alumna begins to think about returning to her alma Mater. Many of her old classmates and her friends of long standing, this year, as in other years, Alumna Day will be held, this Saturday before Commencement. Registration will be at the guest house Saturday morning. The Baldwin County Chapter will be on hand after registration. Lunch will be served in the cafeteria. At 2:30, the annual council meeting will be held, with Bonnie Rene Johnson, first vice-president. In charge of the activities of the president, Mrs. Wiley George, who is now filling the capacity, is the new daughter of the Tuatara. Mrs. George will be the speaker. Then, at 3, there will be a reception in the Mansion. After tea the day is finished, officially, but much talk goes on over the coffee cups in the alms house. In Berlin, where they will be housed.

RD: DATES MAY SMOKE SUNDAY, MOTHERS WITH PARENTS ALLOWED.

A last note reveals the following.

Drug store limits definitions: lipstick-cherry coke old-maid-maid wild baby-egg with vanilla cherry, and grape juice. India ink-water.

When one student was asked by her father if she was doing much "booning" at GWC, she answered, "No, but I'm doing lots of correspondence." An advertisement appeared, offering ladies suit stockings with rayon and too for 40 cents in Montgomery.

Sunday morning after the class breakfasts in the cafeteria, those invited to stay for commencement and to look the campus over. The classes having received their caps are those of ’72, ’73, ’74, ’75, ’76, ’77, ’78, ’79, ’80, ’81, ’82, ’83, ’84, and ’85. So if a strange face should appear at your door, think nothing of it. Invite her in, for she may have once lived where you now live. You, too, might be in her place some day.

P.S. Dr. Dunbar was invited to the commencement, and he said, "I used to be a student there."
