Guri Lee Lectures At Student Chapel

Miss Guri Lili, charming daughter of Trygve Lie, former Secretary General of the United Nations, will speak to the college campus on Tuesday.

She is the only person of her young years ever to have been re- ject at the White House, Bucking ham Palace, the Palais d' Elyse and the Kremlin, - the four most important residences in the world.

Lili, as her father's hostess and social secretary, too, has had an unusual opportunity to become the hostess to royalty and the world's top dignitaries. After her father's resignation from the United Nations, she decided to remain in the United States and become an American citizen.

Pretty and petite, Miss Lili, has led an exciting life since the day in 1949, when the Nazi invaded her native Norway and she fled with her family to England. She completed her education at the fashionable school of Roedean. She then entered the Royal Air Force: Women's Army where she attained the rank of Staff Sergeant.

Miss Lili has a ready wit and a wonderful sense of humor as well as enthusiasm for her work. Her great store of anecdotes and stories of the making of recent history are fascinating. She promises to present a new and personal light on the great events of the last few years.

In addition to her lecturing, Miss Lili is at present writing a book on her experiences as a hostess and experiences with the world's leading figures.
