Dr. Stewart J. Loyd Chosen to be Recipient of the Herty Day Award

BY EDITH BISHOP

Dr. Stewart J. Loyd, of the University of Alabama, has been chosen as the Herty model which is to be presented on May 3. The Herty model has been presented each year since 1923 to an outstanding student of the Southeast.

Loyd, a native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, is a graduate of the University of Alabama. He received his Ph.D. degree in Chemistry from the University of Chicago in 1943. He has taught at the University of Alabama since 1943 and is currently a Professor of Chemistry.

Loyd has received numerous awards for his work in chemistry, including the National Medal of Science and the National Medal of Technology. He is a fellow of the American Chemical Society and the American Physical Society.

The Herty model is awarded to an outstanding student of the Southeast, and Loyd is widely regarded as one of the most outstanding students of the Southeast.

Rock Eagle is Scene of Annual Conference

The April Sessions of the Southeastern Association of College Boards of Education were held on April 14-16, 1957, at Rock Eagle, a 15,000 acre Club Center Near Athens, Georiga. The West Virginia Student Government Association, the University of North Carolina Student Government Association, and the University of Georgia served as the official hostesses for the meeting. One hundred and twenty delegates attended the conference on problems of higher education.

The conference was the most appropriate site for the meeting with the knowledge of the state and the facility of the Rock Eagle facilities.

The conference was attended by students, faculty, and administrators from all over the United States. The conference was a great success and was well received by all.

A Girl's Best Friend

by GRAHAM JACKSON

A girl's best friend is her dog. Well, not all girls have dogs, but they're the best friends you can have. They are loyal, faithful, and always there for you. They never judge, and they always love you unconditionally.

The Rut We Live In

by Betsy Alberta

Do you ever feel like you're stuck in a rut? It's true, we all have our little daily routines. It can be comforting, but it can also be limiting. Why not try something new and shake things up a bit?

A Step Forward

by JOSEPHINE MCMILLAN

One of the most prevalent problems on campus is being overworked. There are many things students can do to improve their situation. First, try to prioritize your tasks and make a plan.

Insecurity, the Termitic

by BETTY J. JONES

Insecurity can be a common problem. It's important to remember that everyone has insecurities. It's all a matter of perspective.

WINSTON

TASTES GOOD!

by JAMES D. SMITH

WINSTON tastes good. It's a fact! Why settle for anything less?

WINSTON

LIKE A CIGARETTE

SHOULD!

by JOE HARRISON

Comparing WINSTON to other cigarettes is like comparing apples to oranges. WINSTON is the only one that really delivers.

WINSTON

is a class by itself for flavor!

by ALBERT W. SMITH

WINSTON is a class by itself for flavor! It's a unique taste that sets it apart from the rest.

WINSTON...enjoy the snow-white filter in the crisp smooth taste!
Fashion’s Fads

With the coming of the Easter season come Jessies adorned in Easter highlights.

This week the spotlight falls on the ever popular duster types.

This type outfit can serve for many occasions. Wear alone, the sheer dress is very attractive, and for an old-fashioned way to dress the outfit up a bit, add the jacket, Jane Daniels, Sunset Floral, Betty Sowell, and Nancy Harrison look to see if they might have stocked from a recent Vogue wearing their own exciting duster ensembles.

CLERK MURDERS BOSS Staged Here May 1 & 2 By MARJOLIE FOLK

You work twenty-five years and what happens? You're killed off to take a nap yet?

This is typical of what Helen sells. You work twenty-five years and what happens? You're killed off to take a nap yet?

The underlying emotion in needing to die for nature to be written particularly has been expressed in many a business man's understanding of the business end.

Eller Ries, author of The Ad-

ning Machine, is an advertising man. He has been one of the leaders of the progressively minded theater for over ten decades. His work displays great technical skill and literary merit.

The Adorning Machine is the story of a duster type, as you may probably know. The author, Mr. Ries, has worked for twenty-five years, together with his brother figures, his building, during his life. His zest for his job because selling mementos is the most important one of his. Mr. Ries sells for the price is right. He is a guy in over. Mr. Ries never felt his name in an idyllic form-

after.

The energy for the pay will be a lot better, not to be ignored. A team more stylish than real.

The chances of Russian stage will never be the same. Between scenes the properties will be changed in an eerie light while George

Armis plays weird music. Mr. Ar-nis composed the music especially for this production. The new lighting control board, which was recently installed at the theater, provides unusual light effects. Also, weird fingers, clowns, and other sway will no doubt serve to add to the effectiveness of the advancing.

The Adorning Machine under the management of Mr. Ries will be presented in Roswell Auditorium.

The premiere is Saturday, April

and Thursday nights, May 1 to 23. The play sounds amusing and especially students are invited to join in the fun. It is an experience for the audience

and the performers.
