College Theater Features Comedy “Old Acquaintance” On Nov 7-8

By Betty McWhiter

"All theories of what a good play is, or how a good play should be written are futile. A good play..." - Maurice Bennett College Theater, will present "Old Acquaintance," a modern comedy by vessels of November 7-8 in Russell Auditorium.

John Van Druten has been noted for his handling of great plots on stage. This comedy by him is a study of three women and their reactions to a particular situation involving one man. Two of the three women are novelists and at first sight it seemed that they had prototypes in real life. The "right on!" way was also drawn from the writing which actually occurred.

Tickets for the play and season tickets can be obtained in the box office. Don't forget — more seats in Russell 7-8 p.m. in Russell Auditorium.

Georgia Power Shows Operation Of Atomic Range In Chapel Hall

Would you like to see bacon fry in 16 minutes? Popsicles bake in 10 minutes? or turkey in 30 minutes? The electron range bakes, broils, and roasts in a minute and uses high frequencies microwave energy to cook. Atlantic Richfield is the inventor of this novel development in the home cooking in its Chapel Hall building. The building can be seen on the courtesy of Georgia Power and Los Alamos.

This marvel of cooking is ideal for today's fast pace. The unique operation of this equipment is that it is estimated by 1950, there will be 100,000 houses in the United States.

"Chores or students are wasteful to measure by, and how you will be cooking in the future," suggests Mrs. Ann Smith, head of the department.

McCaffrey Views News Foreign And Domestic

Washington correspondent, Joseph P. McCaffrey will speak in +4morrow's November 12 , "A Look at Prisons of the Present and Their Government." He will talk for the venerated radio and will attempt to present both domestic and foreign problems of the national security.

The immediate years ahead present a grave challenge to the people of this country. Mr. McCaffrey believes, he can continue to work and win a national strength.

Mr. McCaffrey, a long time political journalist, is an experienced hand at politics in the national and local and has been covering over a several years. The State Chairman of last year's Republican, Mr. McCaffrey believes that the State Chairman is the only choice for the party.

Perhaps the debate will be limited to the candidates for President.

GSCW Honors Rotary Conclave On Nov 8 & 9

By Rob Jackson

Each year it is customary to hold a Conclave for all the Rotary students in Georgia here in Ml Job. The Rotary students are alumni from all parts of the world who have received a scholarship from the Rotary Club of Georgia. The only Rotary Scholarship Student on the program is from Fort Worth, Texas.

The Rotary Conclave this year will meet November 8th and 9th. The students will arrive early in the afternoon of the 8th and will remain until Monday morning. Here they will be housed in dormitories of C.C. College. Although 52 members are the only Rotary Scholarship Student in the program they will find plenty of opportunities to socialize and meet other students.

The Home Economics Building will also emphasize American Art Week. The new furniture, designed by the housepeople, represent American Art. During the week the club will display some of the local artists.

Mr. Raphael of Kansas City, the State Chairman of last year's American Artists League, writes that he is0 enthusiastic about the event to let every student have a non-cooperative participation in the event. A display of past years' work coming will be entered by past students. Georgia has won two places before last year.

Shoe Shine

There is definitely something in the air this fall. The Flats are always the place to be this time of year. The students are happy about the return of warm weather and the football team is guaranteeing it will grow even stronger as the.autumn months roll in.

One of the most popular events of the year is the annual "Golden Slipper" which is a tradition long established. The student body has grown and improved over the years, and the annual event is a test of the best. It has been said that every student will wear a pair of "Golden Slipper" and that will remain true to this day.

How is it to see some of our regular clientele these days? Many have been seen in the halls during the past week. The students are happy to see everyone and it is a time for them to catch up on all their old friends.

Have You Ever Noticed?

Have you ever noticed how polite we are to strangers or people we have never seen? When I think about it, it is easier to be friendly and helpful.

When we see a person sitting alone in a corner, do we ever stop to say hello? Our new tradition is to say hello to everyone. It is important to make people feel welcome and it is good for our community.

Freedom of Choice

This country was founded on the idea of freedom of choice. We are given the opportunity to choose our own path in life. It is our right to choose our own education, our jobs, and our future. We are given the freedom to make our own decisions.
