Eleven Girls Are Elected To Who's Who Membership

By Mariella Glenn

WHOM WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES is a national organization founded in 1934 to recognize the students who possess and practice outstanding qualities in leadership.

Recognition by Who's Who means that the student was, first, officially recommended by the university or college he attends and then accepted by the organization.

College juniors, seniors, and graduates enrolled in graduate schools are eligible for nomination. Selection of nominees is conducted by campus committees that actually faculty participate.

Casino and Homecoming Fun

By Sue Jackson

Alumnae flock to Homecoming fun tonight. Saturday, Oct. 12.

Students of GWCW will celebrate Homecoming beginning today, Friday, November 1. Prominent of these will be the classes of 1919 and 1929 who will meet again at the Central Auditorium this evening.

The theme of the evening will be "The Girl of the Century", and the main event will be the selection of this year's Homecoming Queen. The queen will be crowned at the end of the evening's festivities.

The event will feature a program of music, dance, and fashion shows, with participation by all classes attending.

The night will conclude with a grand banquet, where attendees will be treated to a delicious meal and table decorations.
Dr. Lee Welcomes Alumnae
To the Homecoming Alumni
November 11, 1982

Dear Alumnae,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all of you back to campus. As you know, our Homecoming celebration is an important event in our academic calendar, and I am delighted to see so many of you here to celebrate.

I hope you will enjoy the activities planned for the weekend, which include the traditional Homecoming football game, a variety of social events, and opportunities to reconnect with old friends and classmates.

Please join me in my office later today for a special reception, and I look forward to hearing your stories and experiences since your graduation.

Sincerely,
Dr. Lee
President

The Penetrating Pendulum

Editorial

In this week's issue, we are featuring an article about the historical significance of pendulums in scientific and technological advancements. Pendulums have played a crucial role in the development of clocks, navigation, and physics, and we will explore some of these applications in greater detail.

Among the key figures in the history of pendulums are Galileo Galilei, who is credited with the discovery of the pendulum's period, and Christiaan Huygens, who developed the first pendulum clock. The pendulum's ability to maintain a constant rhythm has made it a valuable tool in various fields, from astronomy to education.

We encourage our readers to explore this fascinating topic further and to share any insights or stories they may have about pendulums.

Spirits of Golden Slipper

Editorial

The Golden Slipper is an esteemed literary award presented to exceptional student writers at our institution. It is an honor that reflects the high standards of our academic community and celebrates the talent and creativity of our students.

As we approach this year's award ceremony, we remind our readers to support and encourage the writers in our midst. Whether you are an aspiring author or simply enjoy reading, the Golden Slipper is a testament to the power of storytelling and the importance of fostering a vibrant literary culture.

We encourage our readers to attend the ceremony and to join us in celebrating the achievements of our student writers.
