Origin of Golden Slipper

From a small Night on the Turf, an English influence on the Freshman luncheon has given its acceptance to the Freshman luncheon in the Student Union.

The idea of the Freshman luncheon was suggested by the Freshman class of 1938, who wanted a way to express their appreciation to the faculty and administration for the fine education they were receiving. The luncheon was held in the Student Union, and the students wore golden slipper shoes, a symbol of the university's rich history. The slipper was a unique and distinctive item that represented the university's unique history.
