Dr. Folger's Retirement Announced

Dr. J. L. Lounsbury To Fill Position

In him there is bound sincerity, warmth, and an enthusiasm for life which combine with his many other attributes to make him one of the most likeable and respected members of the faculty. This faculty member is Dr. D. F. Folger.

After serving excellently for eleven years as Chairman of the Division of Teacher Education, Dr. Folger will retire next year from this position and will be teaching regular classes in the Education Department. Dr. Folger came to GSCW in 1944 from West Georgia College at Carrollton where he headed the Teacher Education Program. It was at Clement College in South Carolina that he received his B.S. Degree, and his Master's Degree was obtained at Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tennessee.

In addition to his chairmanship of the Division of Teacher Education here at GSCW, Dr. Folger has also served as President of Phi Gamma Mu, the local honor society in Social Studies, President of the local O.A.A. chapter, and as a committee member of both the O.E.A. and the Teacher Education Council. He is now Chairman of the Regents Committee of Teacher Education in the University System.

The review of the publication of his ideas, Dr. Folger also pub-lished a book on "The Study of Human Nature" in Nashville, Tennessee, but has also contributed numerous articles to the "Junior College Journal" and "Education Leadership." Dr. Folger's hobbies include re-purposing old fashioned chairs, making homemade jams and jellies. In fact, Dr. Folger has made some of the delicious jellies we have here in college.

Kennedy, Stevenson, Nixon
Top's G. S. C. W. Poll

By Shirley Roll

Remains loyal to his party's plans. Another possible Republican contender, Nelson Rockefeller, was out of the running.

Dr. Helen L. Green, GSCW History and Social Science Professor, received the only write-in votes. Twenty-seven students voted to get the new president, but 4 per cent were automatically thrown out in order to keep the election open.

The final tally of votes listed Jack Kennedy — 191; Adlai Stevenson — 19; Richard Nixon — 15; Nelson Rockefeller — 15; Lyndon Johnson — 15; Hubert Humphrey — 6; Stuart Symington — 3; and Dr. Green — 3. Then Kennedy holds a group of students who yearn for the Kennedy Club.

College Laundry Increases Service

The college laundry has begun evening-a-week service plans to eliminate one of the two laundry days. The 240 votes were delivered and came for dry cleaning.

Students want their dry cleaning in a separate laundry day when their laundry is dry. However, if students carry their own dry cleaning to the laundry and pay their own bill, the laundry will deliver the dry cleaning to the proper dorm when returning the student's laundry.

For an additional trip to the laundry may be eliminated.

Mr. Kiser, director of the college laundry, is very much interested in pleasing GSCW girls. He recently stated that he would like to visit with them and learn their opinion of the service.

ACEI Receives National Praise

The ACEI Student Branch from GSCW received national notice in the Student Column of the ACEI Branch Program for April. The article told how this group formed and gave a frankly "Plan of Attack" to assist other students with ACEI, its programs, and its affairs. It recorded the recent visit of National ACEI Vice-President Ernest Lindeberg and his presentation of the results in Boston.

This was the third time that GSCW's ACEI Organization has received national recognition.

View GSCW On Junior Day—April 30

On April 30, GSCW will invite high school and junior college bound students to campus. School and student tours will be conducted through the junior college by current GSCW students. Interested students will be welcome to attend a junior college class, meet a few students, and see for themselves what it is like to attend college.

Softball Teams
Play In Intramurals

The softball field has been a very busy place lately. Many girls have had much excitement and fun playing for and playing in the softball intramural sport. The teams are as follows: Team 1, Laura Lee Abel; Team 2, Blerta Pencala; Team 3, Laurel Pearson; Team 4, Beverly Thompson, Delores Hupla, Carol Adams; Team 5, Charles Richards, Betty Fowler; and Team 6, Ann Mitchell.

Y's Owl

There are many things that we as students take for granted. These are the things that probably mean much more to our daily lives than we think. GSCW is so easy to all walk and play that others have sport so much time and effort in preparation to different when we began to think about it.

One of the activities of which I am being taught is to wear out all the hall and night after night listen to someone who has sacrificed time and effort to share with us a good development, but think how much more meaningful it would be if we shared some of the responsibility.

One of the common ceremonies for us students give for not participating in any way to it is that there is a 4-component, while those present. There are a few hours on campus where things are going to be held this week. The activities include: a tour of the campus, a meeting with the teachers, a visit to the library, and a visit to the art gallery.

If more people would take time to listen to the things being said and go over to the Y before hand and prepare to go into the hall and then is to a religious service, which is the one thing we need in our religious life on campus would be better for everyone.

Speaking Of Sports

Attention, teen clatter—Do you know that there was a new baseball game in Millville? Just put it to the Town—City. Shopping Center, 3rd, and you can’t miss it. Several girls have almost taken advantage of this new recreational facility and found it. The name of the game will be the result of a new establishment which was made after 8:00 A.M. or 6:00 P.M. on week days and from 2:00 to 9:00 P.M. on Sundays. According to Social Standards, more clubs are available.

New in Videotape Swimming has been opened, let’s all remember to stay to the negative words which have been set up regarding this type of the pool. Only a few girls may have passed a Senior Lifeguarding Instruction Course may sign up for the key to the pool, and no one may go swimming unless a girl has the lifeguard list in the gym at the pool.

Don’t forget the movie on the baseball field on May 14th at 9:30 P.M. The name of the movie is “Fools In Town”.
