Iri'mim"

.Drawing of a dance floor planning.

Dance Club To Present Annual Dance Prog'; Dances Composed By Students

THE DANCE CLUB of the Women's College of Georgia will Friday evening, February 10, at 8:30 P.M. in Russell Au-dominate one of the annual programs of the College. The program will consist of a variety of music and dance composed by groups of students.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been
composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been
composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been
composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been
composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mr. Larry Hurst, head of the Dance Club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been
composed by students, as well as some which have been composed by professional musicians.

Mariah Daniel of Athens, who is a member of the dance club, said that the program will include a number of dances which have been composed by students, as well as some which have been
composed by professional musicians.
The XVII OLYMPIAD

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Jeanne Brennan

The banner City is a city that has a history of its own, and that history is best preserved in the art and music of the Olympic Games. These games were first held in Greece in 776 B.C. and have been held every four years since then. The Olympic Games are a celebration of the spirit of competition and the best of humanity. They are a symbol of the human spirit, and the Olympic spirit is living strong in the hearts of people around the world.

The Olympic Games are a symbol of the human spirit, and the Olympic spirit is living strong in the hearts of people around the world. The games are a celebration of the spirit of competition and the best of humanity. They are a symbol of the human spirit, and the Olympic Games are a celebration of the spirit of competition and the best of humanity.

The Olympic Games are a celebration of the spirit of competition and the best of humanity. They are a symbol of the human spirit, and the Olympic spirit is living strong in the hearts of people around the world. The games are a celebration of the spirit of competition and the best of humanity. They are a symbol of the human spirit.