Elections For Major Officers
To Be January 30

Elections for heads of the three major campus organizations will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 30. Petitions may be turned in at 2:00 p.m. in the Dissertation Office of a campus student interested in the office, or to work as well as possible under pressure.

President of BCT and Y es-cpecially need to be able to play interesting social activities, whether these be S.U. parties or after-night educational classes.

The president of C.C.A. should feel a homemade snack in the stage and front of a large audience.
The Race is On!

Dr. Dr. Green.

Mrs. Huell Alien, Queen of the Colony, was in high spirit a few days ago when she received word that her horse, which had never been in the race before, had won the 1982 Kentucky Derby. Mrs. Alien had been a long-time horse-racing fan and had been a member of the colony for over 20 years. The horse, named Colonel Green, was a 2-year-old colt and had been trained by Mrs. Alien herself. The win was a surprise to many, as the horse had not been considered a strong contender beforehand.

Drugs: Bah and Humbug

By Elizabeth Selby

In an attempt to curb drug abuse, the U.S. government has recently introduced a new policy. The policy, known as the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, requires all schools to develop comprehensive drug education programs. The act also mandates that every school district develop a drug-free plan that includes prevention, treatment, and education components.

Fine Arts Week Is a Success

The Fine Arts Committee of College Weekend Association organized a week-long event to celebrate the arts. The week included performances such as plays, concerts, and art exhibits. The committee aimed to promote appreciation for the arts and to engage students in cultural activities.

Traveling Through Georgia

The Last Gold at Dahlonega, Ga.

No one ever expected that the last gold nugget would be found in Dahlonega. Yet, in January 1982, a local prospector discovered a rare gold nugget that sparked a frenzy of excitement. The nugget was estimated to be worth over $15,000.

Opportunities Abound

As Air Force Teachers

In order to attract more young people to the Air Force, the Department of Defense has announced a new recruitment program. The program, called "A Rising Star," aims to provide opportunities for students to join the Air Force and pursue careers in the military.
