A Message To High School Seniors:

Welcome, you 400 prospective new students! We certainly hope you have been enjoying your visits and will continue to do so while you are here.

This year, High School Week-end has been done in a different manner than past years. Geor gia College seniors are coming to our campus instead of our going to their assembly in the afternoon; and, departmental visits and tours are available on Friday afternoon. The new procedure will enable us to schedule you more during their stay.

Friday evening's program in the Student Union was designed to give a brief sketch of the activities of three of the camp's major organizations. The directors working on these events are Dr. Barbara Belo wagner, Leonard Hart, and Dr. Mon Noah.

Saturday morning, you visitors will have an opportunity to view a display of students at the various occupations. This year, practically every student and most of the students have been involved in the planning and car rying out of the annual High School week-end. We sincerely hope that you are able to see as much as possible of our courses before you are here and that you will go away anxious to return again in the fall of 1953.

LARGE AUDIENCE TURNS OUT FOR \Rugby Path Chicago Opera Ballet

by Jane Poy

The Community Concert As sociation of Milligolds ville was host to the nationally famous Rugby Path Chicago Opera Ballet Wednesday night, February 7. Included on the program of fine performances was the dramatic ballet, "Camille," starring Melvina Hayman and Ken neth Johnson. As the audience watched, the aesthetic and costumers revealed the story of the white-capped heroine, Camille, and her tragic love affair with the handsome and highly respected young man, Armand Duval.

"Entertainment," a short humorous ballet, gave all an interesting glimpse into the personal lives and feelings of heroes in love.

The last performance was the delightful and intriguing story of "The Merry Widow," starring Santa Ana as the widow and Kenneth Johnson as Prince Sandoll with whom she falls in love. Enchanted by the title music of the opéra, this performance proved to be fascinating as it presented its plot.

The ballets were staged and choreographed by Rugby Path with Howard Gerhard managing the stage settings and scenery. Cast members were by Karl Borka and the orchestra was under the direction of Neal Kaye with Kener Perther as the assistant conductor. Most of the music was by Gaetano Donizetti and the ballet was Larry Long.

A large audience of interested local citizens and many college students filled the Auditorium for the appearance of this fine company.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE CHOIR PLANS CONCERT FEBRUARY 28

The Woman's College Choir, and Dr. Max Noah, Director, will leave the music building Friday, Feb. 23, for a long West-coast Tour of Northwestern Georgia. The city-gowned choir will sing in The Lawrenceville Methodist Church Friday night; Saturday in Richmond Baptist Church, Dalton; Sunday in Dalton First Baptist Church in the afternoon and E. Lake Baptist Church in the evening; Valley School Assembly Monday noon and Smyrna Baptist Church at night; and the final concert at the Martin Brown Methodist Church in Atlanta, Tuesday.

Wednesday night, February 28th at 8:15 the Choir will present its 75th Annual home con cert in Russell Auditorium. There will be no charge, but an offering will be taken for the Max Noah Music Scholarship Fund.

Students of the Choir re present all departments of the college. The choir makes an appearance on each year, this year in New York City, Washington, D.C., and points south.

The very demanding work of the standards, the inter est of their music for de velop a better disciplined, more generous and flexible personality.

Perhaps the greatest of all these advantages is that of forming friendships with free people and training and re reating are required to re active the efforts through blend of harmony, rhythm, and tone quality.

Dr. Noah, the dynamic and energetic director of the choi r, he has many years experience in directing choral groups. He studied under Dr. John Fin ber, Williamson, director of the Westminster Choir at Princeton, N. J. J. J. He was formerly the head of the department of music.

College Theatre Reports
As usual College Theatre has followed a rugged schedule thus far this school year with more to follow soon.

The Fall Quarter production of "Mr. Pennington" kept the cast in rehearsal nightly and afforded live freshmen and one transfer the opportunity to become acquainted with requirements for membership in College Theatre.

With the play completed, the players could attend to other business at hand. Thus business was the election of officers and the induction of a new member. This new member was sophomore Ray Holway. The Players then put her right to work by electing her secretary-treasurer for the group. Cindy Bender was elected president. Other active members of College Theatre are Jay Anderson, Pat Gibson, and Martha Overstreet.

After the election, College Theatre, along with Lecade Hart, director and sponsor, held a dinner at the Sanford House. Honored guests were Dr. Ross Lee Walton, Mr. John Bradery, and Mayor Bill Caw of D.M.C. Player Cindy Bender has recently completed requirements and has been accepted into Alpha Phi Omega. Alpha Phi Omega is the national drama honor society.

This year's production is "The Chair" by Barney Zell. Clinton. This is a one-act play to be presented during High School Week. Beverly Opinio is assistant director for this production.

One reason for giving an one-act play Winter Quarters rather than the full production of the play will be "Disney and the Witcher," a folktale on grave matters.

SAI Group Plans American Music Program

Tuesday, February 10, the members of Beta Bhs Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota went to Western College for SAI State Day. Problems of the chapters of SAI in Georgia for which there are 9 were discussed.

A musical was presented after lunch by some of the students from the chapters attending. Frances Lyle and Myr-

Mrs. Deaf from our chapter were among those performing.

Our American Music Program will be present in chapel Monday, February 19. There will be piano solos, vocal solos, and a choir member. Duko Gerafinacti, and Paluchman will be among the composers whose works are to be presented.

SAI is planning another chapel program in the spring. The nature of the program has not been decided yet.
