Seniors Are Given Opportunity For Air Force Officer Training

An Air Force Officer Training School Selection Team will be in the Student Center from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday, January 24th. The team will offer seniors an opportunity to take an appointment to the Air Force Officer Training School (O.T.S.). Air Force O.T.S. is a twelve week co-educational course located near San Antonio, Texas. The Air Force announce ment emphasized that at no point is a person under any type obligation until she actually takes the enlistment oath two days prior to graduation. Those interested in attending this course are encouraged to take the O.T.S. class. Female officers in the Air Force perform in such fields as Personnel Administration, Accounting, Finance, Communications, Weather, Purchasing, Hospital Intelligence Service, Educational Service and Statistical Service. The Selection Team will al- so be empowered to offer 18 months Air Force sponsored college financial aid for senior students who qualify. In addition, the regu lar Women's Air Force (WAF) enlisted program, with an opportunity to complete college while in the Air Force, will be explained to any interested undergraduates.

The Air Force Selection Team will be headed by WAF Lt. Nelda Petersen and will include Tech Sgt. Arthur C. Reaves, local Air Force Recruiter, Tech Sg t. Jim Carpenhor, Special Category Recruiter for Georgia; and Airman Second Class Jordan Flurry of Milledgeville, Ga., who is stationed at Robins Air Force Base. Flurry is on recruiting duty, but volun- teered to assist on this trip. Sgt. Reaves, the Air Force Recruiting rep- resentative in the portion of Middle Georgia, visits Milledgeville every Monday, and he will be located at the Milledgeville Post Office from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. His office is located in the Milledgeville Post Office in Milledgeville.

To qualify for the Peace Corps, students must: 1) be a citizen of the United States, 2) have completed at least two years of high school and be at least 18 years of age, 3) be willing to accept certain living conditions, 4) be willing to take an examination for the Peace Corps, 5) be able to pass a background check, 6) have a high school diploma or its equivalent, 7) be physically able to perform the duties of a Peace Corps volunteer.

Representatives From Peace Corps Visit College

Roger Landrum, a former Peace Corps volunteer in Nigeria, West Africa, who is now work- ing as a recruiting officer for the Peace Corps, visited the Woman's College Thursday. He talked with several groups of students on the subject of his experi- ences with the Peace Corps and its opportunities. With him was Dr. Guy H. Wells, a Peace Corps Alumni Relations Officer, who was a Peace Corps volunteer in Egypt.

Mr. Landrum, one of the first Peace Corps Volunteers in Nigeria, West Africa, was trained in Affi- liated Colleges for Women at Michigan State University and then assigned to the University of Nigeria, where he taught English Composition, English Literature, and modern African Literature for two years.

Mr. Landrum is a Peace Corps volunteer who has been to Nigeria, West Africa, and is now working as a recruiting officer for the Peace Corps.
A Cappella Key Note

Every chord has its key note and every chord has its key members. Our choir would have been at a loss many times were it not for one of its key members, Judy Poorman of Columbus.

As a senior, Judy serves her fourth faithful year in the second soprano section of the group. She has been head of the decorations committee for the annual choir banquet for several years, adding that bit of the creative we all need to brighten our days. Just to prove that we’re not the only ones who know the value of Judy’s work, some of the male students at the University of North Carolina showed their approval by stealing the sign off our bus which they had made to advertise the school and the choir on tour.

Thanks to Judy’s artistic abilities, musical interest, and above all her enthusiasm, the choir has been a very fortunate organization.
