A $500 college scholarship will be awarded this spring to a student selected from the Atlanta College and the Press Association Journal- istic Society "American Journalism". The winner will be chosen from a pool of applicants entered by Georgia College and State University journalism students. The competition is sponsored by the Georgia College and the Press Association Journalistic Society.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student who has completed at least one year of college and who has demonstrated excellence in journalism. The scholarship is open to upperclassmen and graduate students. The winner of the scholarship will receive $500 to be used for tuition, books, or other academic expenses.

The scholarship application form can be obtained from the Georgia College and the Press Association Journalistic Society. The deadline for applications is April 1st. The winner will be announced in May.

Dr. Beiswanger Speaks

A formal convocation marked the observance of W.C.'s 16th annual Honor Day Ceremonies on Wednesday, April 14. President, former faculty member, and foreman of the honorees gathered to pay tribute to the 1965 members of Phoe- nix Class. The honor society's officers and members met in the college's auditorium.

The invocation was given by Mr. James Callahan, the College Dean with Ruth Sanford as soloist present.

Alumnae Day is April 24

Should old acquaintance be forgot? Not if you happen to be a graduate of The Woman's College of Georgia. To commemorate the members of the classes of 1940 and 1950, Alumnae Day was held on Saturday morning, April 24th. The day was dedicated to remembering, in some small way, the contributions of these two classes and their contributions to the college.

Alumnae Day was followed by a luncheon at the University Club, and then the evening events began with a reception at the home of Mrs. J. W. Gray, Atlanta. The formal dinner was held at the Atlanta Country Club, and the program included a variety of musical and dramatic performances by the alumnae.

Dr. Lee greets guest speaker, Dr. George Beiswanger.

Rule Changes Now Due

The new spring season is being celebrated with the Spring Dance, Saturday, April 24, 1965, Friday night at the Student Union. The dance will be held from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. The guest speaker will be Tom Collins and the Mi- rae, an exported band from the University of Georgia. The dance will feature live music and will be open to all students.

The dance will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, Atlanta. The program will include a variety of musical and dramatic performances by the alumnae.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student who has completed at least one year of college and who has demonstrated excellence in journalism. The scholarship is open to upperclassmen and graduate students. The winner of the scholarship will receive $500 to be used for tuition, books, or other academic expenses.

The scholarship application form can be obtained from the Georgia College and the Press Association Journalistic Society. The deadline for applications is April 1st. The winner will be announced in May.

Dr. Beiswanger Speaks

A formal convocation marked the observance of W.C.'s 16th annual Honor Day Ceremonies on Wednesday, April 14. President, former faculty member, and foreman of the honorees gathered to pay tribute to the 1965 members of Phoe- nix Class. The honor society's officers and members met in the college's auditorium.

The invocation was given by Mr. James Callahan, the College Dean with Ruth Sanford as soloist present.

Alumnae Day is April 24

Should old acquaintance be forgot? Not if you happen to be a graduate of The Woman's College of Georgia. To commemorate the members of the classes of 1940 and 1950, Alumnae Day was held on Saturday morning, April 24th. The day was dedicated to remembering, in some small way, the contributions of these two classes and their contributions to the college.

Alumnae Day was followed by a luncheon at the University Club, and then the evening events began with a reception at the home of Mrs. J. W. Gray, Atlanta. The formal dinner was held at the Atlanta Country Club, and the program included a variety of musical and dramatic performances by the alumnae.

Dr. Lee greets guest speaker, Dr. George Beiswanger.

Rule Changes Now Due

The new spring season is being celebrated with the Spring Dance, Saturday, April 24, 1965, Friday night at the Student Union. The dance will be held from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. The guest speaker will be Tom Collins and the Mi- rae, an exported band from the University of Georgia. The dance will feature live music and will be open to all students.

The dance will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, Atlanta. The program will include a variety of musical and dramatic performances by the alumnae.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student who has completed at least one year of college and who has demonstrated excellence in journalism. The scholarship is open to upperclassmen and graduate students. The winner of the scholarship will receive $500 to be used for tuition, books, or other academic expenses.

The scholarship application form can be obtained from the Georgia College and the Press Association Journalistic Society. The deadline for applications is April 1st. The winner will be announced in May.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Miss Bridges:

It is no exploitation to note that students are questioning two decisions of the college which have been made in recent months. It is through the raising of such questions that understanding and greater cooperation are brought about.

The two questions raised appeared in the April issue of The Colonnade. The first was the existence of a room in the Student Center, which was presented as a petition to the spring session of the Senate. The second was the decision of the administration to limit the number of students in some classes, which was presented as a statement of concern by a group of students.

I think, again, sincerely, for raising the questions. It is better to such questions be brought out into the open and clearly discussed than for them to remain hidden and a source of disorder.

Respectfully submitted,

[Signature]

R. L. Coe, Jr., Registrar and Director of Admissions

---

The Colonnade

Volume II, Number 15

April 15, 1965

---

Editorials

As We See It

The Colonnade editorial staff would like to present its views on these issues from the perspective of the students and faculty of the college. The editors hope to stimulate thought and discussion on these important matters.

---

Columns

Student Poll

What's Your Cure For Spring Fever?

ALICE LIVINGSTON-think big.

LYA O'NEILL-think of the background.

BEVERLY JONES-What wants to get off it?

JANE PYNE-My Spring and Spring Tones.

NANCY ARENSAU-get behind the curtains.

BOB SHANK-Don't know, but I wish you good luck anyway.

COURT SIDE-talk sense.

ANNE HARREY-go in my room and read the papers and make myself study.

PATE SIJLER-keep in-it's fun.

TOM TESTON-I don't think there is one. I've been looking for one for five years.

---

Game, Set, Match

On these warm afternoon afternoons, the campus was buzzing with the sound of tennis rackets hitting the ball. The matches were held on the courts located at the back of the main building.

---

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Bridges:

I see that you are concerned about the lack of participation in the tennis matches. I too am concerned about the same issue. I believe that we should continue to support the tennis team and encourage others to join in.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

---

The Colonnade

Volume II, Number 15

April 15, 1965

---

Editorials

As We See It

The Colonnade editorial staff would like to present its views on these issues from the perspective of the students and faculty of the college. The editors hope to stimulate thought and discussion on these important matters.

---

Columns

Student Poll

What's Your Cure For Spring Fever?

ALICE LIVINGSTON-think big.

LYA O'NEILL-think of the background.

BEVERLY JONES-What wants to get off it?

JANE PYNE-My Spring and Spring Tones.

NANCY ARENSAU-get behind the curtains.

BOB SHANK-Don't know, but I wish you good luck anyway.

COURT SIDE-talk sense.

ANNE HARREY-go in my room and read the papers and make myself study.

PATE SIJLER-keep in-it's fun.

TOM TESTON-I don't think there is one. I've been looking for one for five years.

---

Game, Set, Match

On these warm afternoon afternoons, the campus was buzzing with the sound of tennis rackets hitting the ball. The matches were held on the courts located at the back of the main building.

---

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Bridges:

I see that you are concerned about the lack of participation in the tennis matches. I too am concerned about the same issue. I believe that we should continue to support the tennis team and encourage others to join in.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]
Four Delegates From WC Attend G.C.P.A. Convention

The Colonna was one of the eighteen college newspapers represented at the Georgia College Press Association convention held at Georgia State College in Atlanta April 9th and 10th. Editors Ann Bruce and Linda McFarland and reporters Fran Reynolds and Judy Long attended the gathering during which the G.C.P.A.'s new constitution was drafted.

The convention began Friday with a banquet at the Atlanta Press Club, after which the delegates participated in a meeting and listened to a talk on the subject of broadcasting in the classroom by Dr. John F. Cady, Assistant Professor of Journalism at the University of Georgia.

Y Retreat Dubbed A Success

Susan Dean, President of Y, feels that organization's recent Spring Retreat was a distinct success. Members of Y Cabinet and Advisory Board attended the retreat, which was held at Lake Lawson on April 2-3. Students in attendance were: Susan Dean, Sally Powell, Ann Bruce, Rochelle Young, Lee Watkins, Bill Ayers, Leila Montgomery, Alice Steen, Linda McFarland, Joyce McElroy, and Ann Smallwood. The following faculty members joined the group: Mrs. Tate, Miss Baukland, and Joan DeColgilly, Miss Underwood, Mr. Farmer, and Mr. Callahan, Mrs. Tate, and Miss Baukland served as overnight chaperones. Mr. Callahan, advisor to the group, sent the following address, centering his talk on "Passion and Compassion on the College Campus."

The various committees and executive meet and made extensive plans for the new year, including an attentive activities for fall's Freshman Class.

IRC Goes Ivy League

Cost, from Page 3

Saw Saturday included speeches on Asia, Africa, and the Middle East, a panel discussion, and the last discussion group meetings. The climax of the conference came with Dr. Cyril Black's address on "The Future of the World Communist Movement."

Besides the lectures and paper meetings, several social functions were held for the members of the conference. We were given a most interesting tour of the Princeton campus and buildings.

There were 79 colleges and universities represented at the conference, Stanford in California, the U.S. Air Force Academy, the University of South Carolina, the Citadel, and the Woman's College were just a few of the schools represented. Most of the people attending the conference were from the northeastern area. Many foreign students were in this group.

We left Princeton on Sunday afternoon and spent the night in Virginia. Monday evening we arrived in Asheville, tired and still excited, but glad to be back.

THE GLOBE SHOE CLINIC

WILL DO A BEAUTIFUL JOB ON THOSE SHOES FOR THE SPRING DANCE!

Dial 2-7581 Today

"At The Theatre"

THE PRIME RIB CLUB

25¢ Off on Any Pizza During

Month of April.

We Deliver To Dorms - Minimum Order $2.00.

CALL 452-5962

COUPON

This Coupon Worth 25¢ at the

Prime Rib Club

April

Is Teaching Career Month

Go on the drive to get the room - the voice could be gotten on the c.w. Our visit to Oak Ridge was an altogether profitable and exciting field trip.

Walt Disney

Those Calloways

SUN-MON-TUE-WED

A radio picture you'll remember

WALT DISNEY

VOTE FOR CLASS OFFICERS

Alumnae Day

The newly renovated Book Nook will be having a clearance sale on Monday, April 19, from 2:00 until 3:30 p.m., and on Tuesday, April 20, from 2:00 until 3:30 p.m. and from 4:00 until 5:00 p.m. Books no longer in use will be reduced to prices ranging from twenty-five cents to fifty cents. Lunches to go in the Post Office, the Book Nook is owned and operated by the College Government Association. Therefore all profits will be donated to the Association.

Miss Behel reminds the students body that they are invited to attend the Assembly at 10:00, at which time scholarship checks will be presented to the students, to the Juniors, and to several individual girls. In addition the Senate and the Council meeting, the WC Modern Dance group will present a program in Chapter Hall. Numerous class functions in the evening will wind up the activities for what is sure to be a memorable day for all concerned.

Miss Behel reminds the students body that they are invited to attend the Assembly at 10:00, at which time scholarship checks will be presented to the students, to the Juniors, and to several individual girls. In addition the Senate and the Council meeting, the WC Modern Dance group will present a program in Chapter Hall. Numerous class functions in the evening will wind up the activities for what is sure to be a memorable day for all concerned.