Homecoming

Choir Banquets

The Georgia College Choir held its annual homecoming banquet on April 29, climaxing its thirty-second year.

An introduction service was held in Porter Auditorium, following which the Georgia College Choir, under the direction of Dean Carolyn Gentry and the choir's accompanist, Kay Kilby, gave talks. Special visitors and achievements earned by choir members were presented by Dr. Robert Wolfenstein, choir director. Former director, Dr. Max Nodel, led the group in the choir's traditional benediction. A reception was held immediately following the service for choir alumni, faculty and choir members.

"Music in G-C Op. 67, No. 32/" by W. C. Wolfendale, and "Passacaglia" from the banquets held Saturday night, arranged in a series of events and trips of the choir year represented different sections of a movement.

Kay Kilby presented the portrait to guest of incoming president, Betty Brown. Kay was then installed as president of the Georgia College Choir Guild, the organization of Georgia College choir members, and scenes from the forthcoming trip to Europe were presented as were dinner entertainments.

The Alumnae Association presented a check to the college for $5,000, used in furnishing the library of the new Alumnae House.

The check was presented by Mrs. Robert Beall, the alumnae treasurer.

Scholarships awarded as follows: Nancy Jay of Fitzgerald, the Ethel A. Adams Locust Hospitality Scholarship; Billee Sue Smith of Jacksonville, the Louie Neese Scholarship; Joyce McColl of Macon, the Guy H. Wells Scholarship; Jean Holley of Jesup, the Lisa Eason Scholarship; Doris Carson of Statesboro, the Georgia, D. C. Club Scholarship.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee were presented honorary memberships in the organization.

A reception for alumni and guests following the lunch, a reception was held in Atlanta to welcome Mr. Donald Henderson MacKinnon, professor of English, who is retiring at the end of summer quarter.

G.A.H.P.E.R. Bestows Honors At Jekyll

Mr. Clyde W. Kimbrell, Jr., Dr. William Clyde Partin, Chairman of the Division of Physical Education and Athletics at Emory University, and Dr. Barbara Faye Bestewanger, Associate Professor emeritus of Physical Education, Secretary of the Modern Dance Club, Georgia State College for Women, received the 1967 Honor Award Fellows at the third annual convention of the Georgia Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, held at Jekyll Island, April 21-23.

The theme of the convention was "Happiness in Education." Accordingly, Dr. Jean Jacobs, president of the GAIPER, staff and members of the Health and Physical Education Department found happiness in the sun, surf, and speakers, considered excellent by the delegates. Guest speaker was Dr. Joy Kister, president of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and head of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department at Louisiana State University.

Clinics in soccer, rope jumping and golf were held, Dr. Wayne Crook assumed his official duties as new president of GAIPER at the closing session.

Officers Rate House Council

Wednesday afternoon, April 26, the House Council officers took a needed break from the weekly night meeting to go out to Lake Lanier for discussion and evaluation of this year’s House Council.

Each of the dorm presidents led groups on various topics ranging from the role of the individual officers to the position of the floor leaders and dorm projects. After supper the evening session was concluded with a discussion on the Honor System.

One spokesman for the group felt that everyone returned to campus with new insights and ideas. It was suggested that two similar sessions be planned in the fall for officers and floor leaders respectively in order that members of House Council may extend their understanding of their duties as officers.

Penguins Demonstrate

"There is nothing like a dome, nothing in the world," especially in Penguin’s spring demonstration "Girlist Girlist!" which was presented May 4 and 5 in the indoor pool. Beginning slowly, the tempo speeded up to the climax "Clementines," "When a Girl Dreams," and "Tangarane!" climax of the last number which was done in complete "Silence."

The variety of patterns which can be made on the surface of the water was demonstrated by "The Girl from Nowhere," and "Girlist". Following the finales, the members of the Penguin Club were introduced. Officers are as follows: Sherrill Hill, president; Sue Donston, vice-president; Julianne Rosenthal, secretary-treasurer, and Paty Adams, publicity chairman. The members include Mary Akins, Karen Avery, Carolee Hall, Kathy Crocker, Nancy Hopson, Mary Macfarlane, and Diana Woodard. Mike Donald is the club’s advisor.

The BULLWHIP C. GRIFFIN

CampusComedy
reprinted from Reader’s Digest
An Atlanta girl, a freshman at Coralville, phoned home during the all-night blackout of the northeast and reassured her mom: “Relax, Mother, I’m safe, in a fraternity house.”

The Dean of Women at a midwestern college was speaking to the parents of the incoming freshmen. There were, she said, three things they should know about girls in college:

“They cry, They grow up, They fall in love or they don’t — and whichever happens, it’s awful!”
