Chairman Randolph Puckett of the Georgia College Foundation (third from left) congratulates the four Georgia College faculty members recently named GC Foundation Distinguished Professors at College President J. Wayne Spring (right) looks on. The professors, G. L. Dr. Ed Dawson, J.C. Mangialatto, Dr. J.F. Vincent and Dr. M.K. Shadwicks, will be formally honored at the Foundation's annual Patron Dinner October 14 at the Milledgeville Country Club.

The

Wolfersteig To Present Recital

On Tuesday, October 21, 8:00 p.m. in Russell Auditorium, Dr. Robert Wolfersteig will present an organ recital. Included in the program will be works by Beethoven, Bach, Brahms, Vierne, Messiaen, Schrader and Dupre.

Dr. Wolfersteig, who is world reknown, has thrilled his audiences both here and abroad. His sensitivity and skill as a musician are evidenced in every performance. Wolfersteig, who is chairman of the Music Dept. at G.C., received his education from the Conservatory of Music, Westminster Choir College, and Indiana University, having studied organ with Father Timothy Alexander McCurdy, and Oswald Bagdas.

In 1961, he was national winner of the National Organ Playing Contest in Fort Wayne, Indiana, and also received his Ph.D. which was to study in Berlin, Germany. While in Germany, he worked with Karl Schlueter in Organ Design, Sylvia Vierne, H. Max Keiber, Michael Schneider, Organ, and Ernst Pepping, Composer.

Dr. Wolfersteig has taught at Indiana University, Indiana University, and Colburn Music Conference. He has appeared as guest organist with the Boston-Salem Symphony, Indiana University Symphony, the Sunlight Band, Westminster Symphony, and members of the Indianapolis Symphony. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, American Guild of Organists, and Pi Kappa Lambda.

On Nov. 4, Dr. Wolfersteig will also perform at the 1st Baptist Church in Eastman, Ga. for the Dodge County Cultural Enrichment Program.

Elections Tuesday

by Dodi Williams

Tuesday, October 14, is election day at Georgia College, and you are encouraged to vote for the candidates of your choice. The reception of the new plan for the Senate and the reaction and participation by the students are exciting as posters go up in the dorms and students campaign for their posts. The number of candidates is probably greater than ever before in this school.

Polls will be open in the dormitories from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday in hopes that this time will be convenient for everyone. You will be given a printed ballot listing the candidates from your district and telling you how many of them there are to vote for. Our constitution requires that sensors be elected by a majority of the voters in their respective districts. For this reason, you will be asked to vote for the number of sensors to which your district is seated. If no candidates or too few candidates are on your ballot, run-off elections will be held on the following week (Wednesday, October 15) in the same place and at the same time as on Tuesday.

A list of the candidates from each district follows:

ADAMS DORM (to have 3 sensors): Stephanie Elson, Susan Gertken, Marsha H. Hill, Vickie Joiner, Ruby Lewis, Lucie McConkie, Jon Raymore, Joy Roddenberry.

WELLS DORM (to have 2 sensors): Mathew Swain, Ellen Blake, Nancy Hay, Joan Hansen, Carol Gay, Wilma Garrison, Debbie Epperson, Linda Adams.

BELL ANNEX and TERRILL (to have 2 sensors): Louise Sparrow, Charlene Peterson, Susan Jackson, Mary Carden.

TERRILL (to have 1 sensor): Diane Woolard, Marilyn Dickerson.

BEBERN DORM (to have 2 sensors):

Student Center

Changes Announced In Groundbreaking Program

Two changes have been announced in the program for October 14 groundbreaking ceremony; a new student center at Georgia College at Milledgeville. College President J. Wayne Spring said the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia will be represented at the exercises by Dr. William L. Bowne, vice-chancellor for services, Millbridge亨亨亨亨亨亨亨亨亨亨亨亨Hen.

The program will begin at 8:00 p.m. in Russell Auditorium. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to attend. The ceremony will begin at 2:00 p.m. at the University of Georgia.
On October 14, 1969 the student senators of Georgia College take a step toward the present for the student senators of the next generation. As the Senate meets in its fall session, it has the opportunity to make a difference.
The student body of Georgia College evolves as the student body of Florida State University is in transition. The student legislative bodies have a responsibility to make decisions that will affect the future of our college and our state.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
I have never claimed to be a teacher, but I have some different ideas about the way we teach. Many people believe that the Horace Mann School System is one of those traditions that should be continued. However, I disagree with this view.

In my opinion, we need a new approach to education. We should not continue to depend on the Horace Mann School System. Instead, we should create a new system that is more relevant to the needs of today's students.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

The Colomadade

The Colomadade is published weekly except during the summer months by the students of Georgia College at Millville, Millville, Georgia.

Editor-in-Chief

Georgia College

A Point Of Order

On October 14, 1969 the students' rights are at stake. It is time for candidates to the new Student Senate. The Senate elects will be conventioned shortly thereafter to direct their attention and efforts to the betterment of the student body.
The students will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

While the individual Senators will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

Attitudes and differences regarding prejudice toward the student body are important aspects that make up the total student body. There are no reasons in the deliberations during the Senate meetings to discuss the race of the student body.

Face the Senate, talk to each other, and why is it not easy to discuss the race of the student body?

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
I have never claimed to be a teacher, but I have some different ideas about the way we teach. Many people believe that the Horace Mann School System is one of those traditions that should be continued. However, I disagree with this view.

In my opinion, we need a new approach to education. We should not continue to depend on the Horace Mann School System. Instead, we should create a new system that is more relevant to the needs of today's students.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

The Colomadade

The Colomadade is published weekly except during the summer months by the students of Georgia College at Millville, Millville, Georgia.

Editor-in-Chief

Georgia College

A Point Of Order

On October 14, 1969 the students' rights are at stake. It is time for candidates to the new Student Senate. The Senate elects will be conventioned shortly thereafter to direct their attention and efforts to the betterment of the student body.
The students will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

While the individual Senators will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

Attitudes and differences regarding prejudice toward the student body are important aspects that make up the total student body. There are no reasons in the deliberations during the Senate meetings to discuss the race of the student body.

Face the Senate, talk to each other, and why is it not easy to discuss the race of the student body?

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
I have never claimed to be a teacher, but I have some different ideas about the way we teach. Many people believe that the Horace Mann School System is one of those traditions that should be continued. However, I disagree with this view.

In my opinion, we need a new approach to education. We should not continue to depend on the Horace Mann School System. Instead, we should create a new system that is more relevant to the needs of today's students.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

The Colomadade

The Colomadade is published weekly except during the summer months by the students of Georgia College at Millville, Millville, Georgia.

Editor-in-Chief

Georgia College

A Point Of Order

On October 14, 1969 the students' rights are at stake. It is time for candidates to the new Student Senate. The Senate elects will be conventioned shortly thereafter to direct their attention and efforts to the betterment of the student body.
The students will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

While the individual Senators will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

Attitudes and differences regarding prejudice toward the student body are important aspects that make up the total student body. There are no reasons in the deliberations during the Senate meetings to discuss the race of the student body.

Face the Senate, talk to each other, and why is it not easy to discuss the race of the student body?

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
I have never claimed to be a teacher, but I have some different ideas about the way we teach. Many people believe that the Horace Mann School System is one of those traditions that should be continued. However, I disagree with this view.

In my opinion, we need a new approach to education. We should not continue to depend on the Horace Mann School System. Instead, we should create a new system that is more relevant to the needs of today's students.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

The Colomadade

The Colomadade is published weekly except during the summer months by the students of Georgia College at Millville, Millville, Georgia.

Editor-in-Chief

Georgia College

A Point Of Order

On October 14, 1969 the students' rights are at stake. It is time for candidates to the new Student Senate. The Senate elects will be conventioned shortly thereafter to direct their attention and efforts to the betterment of the student body.
The students will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

While the individual Senators will be representing their responsibilities and will have the opportunity to make a difference in the development of the student government.

Attitudes and differences regarding prejudice toward the student body are important aspects that make up the total student body. There are no reasons in the deliberations during the Senate meetings to discuss the race of the student body.

Face the Senate, talk to each other, and why is it not easy to discuss the race of the student body?
Who's Who In American Colleges And Universities

Nancy Batchelor
Nancy Batchelor is an elementary education major from Newnan, Georgia. While at GC Nancy has been on the Dean's List, treasurer of the Christian Association, and a member of Phi Sigma. She is presently a Junior Advisor and vice president of the junior class.

Patricia Granger
Patricia Granger is a physical education major from Jacksonville, Florida. She is a member of the Student National Education Association, NPHS, Tumbling Club and was a Junior Advisor. She is now president of Recreation Association.

Betty Gober
Betty Gober is a Spanish major from Franklin, Georgia. She has been president of Baptist Student Union, publicity chairman of the Spanish Club, a Junior Advisor and secretary-treasurer of Psi Sigma. She is currently campus coordinator of Aggie.

Susan Cannon
Susan Cannon is a sociology major from Gwinnett, Georgia. Susan has been on the Dean's List and was State Hospital Project Chairman of the Christian Association. She is presently a Junior Advisor.

Diane Clements
Diane Clements is from Morga, Georgia and is an elementary education major. She is a member of the Student National Education Association, the annual staff and is presently secretary of Aggie.

Charles Bryant
Charles Bryant is a physical education major. Besides being a member of the Circle K Club Charlie has been the Captain of the Varsity Soccer team and is captain-elect this year. He also plays Varsity Baseball and is President of the Men's Athletic Association.

Mary Jane Hunt
Mary Jane Hunt is an English major from Perry, Georgia. Mary Jane has held such positions as vice president of Phi Sigma, Junior Advisor, secretary of the Junior class and a member of the Miss America court. She is presently vice president of the College Government Association.

Martha Shipp
Martha Shipp is an elementary education major from Talbotton, Georgia. She has been a Y-Sister and a Junior Advisor, secretary of the Christian Association. She is presently on the Dean's List of Col- leges Choir and is vice president of the International Relations Club.

Linda Lawson
Linda Lawson is a psychology major from Opelika, Alabama. Carol has been on Dean's List, a member of Phi Sigma, a Junior Advisor, a representative to Honor Council and community co-ordinator for the Christian Association. She is presently vice president of Aggie.

Carol Gay
Carol Gay is a psychology major from Opelika, Alabama. Carol has been on Dean's List, a member of Phi Sigma, a Junior Advisor, a representative to Honor Council and community co-ordinator for the Christian Association. She is presently vice president of Aggie.

Susan Nance
Susan Nance, a music education major, is from Ringgold, Georgia. Susan is a member of the Georgia College Choir, Al- legro Club and the GC Band. She has been coordinator of religious activities for the Christian Association and a Junior Advisor. Susan is present- dient of this year's senior class.

Gail Presley
Gail Presley is an English major from Thomson, Georgia. Gail is a member of the International Relations Club, the Literary Guild, the Service Guild and Phi Sigma. She was the recipient of the Martha Bros- sic Scholarship for 68-69. Gail is the president of the College Government Association.

Regina Millwood
Regina Millwood is a home economics major from Lithia Springs, Georgia. She is a member of the Georgia College Choir and is presently serving as Recording secretary for the College Government Association.

Lou Anne Tuck
Lou Anne Tuck is from Covington, Georgia and is an English major, she has been on the Dean's List and has been a Y-Sister and a Junior Advisor. She is a member of Phi Sigma, the Baptist Student Union and Service Guild. Lou Ann currently serves as the women's co-chairman of Honor Council.

Stanley Conine
Stanley Conine is a Religious major from Stockton, Ga. He is president of Aggsa.
Join An Organization

For a school as small as Georgia College, it offers an impressive number of athletic organizations. The purpose of these clubs is to offer the individual students the opportunity to participate and excel. It is a sport. The club is a place for the students to express their interests and to form lasting relationships. The clubs also provide a way for students to meet new people and to develop new skills. Any student interested in a club should contact the club advisor for more information.

Seacl Diving Club

by Elaine Inman

Seacl Diving Club is really "buing" her one thing this year by sponsoring a Student Dive Team. Three non-members, Ed Tullar, Ed Mardis, and Lewis Paine, are the student leaders who have been recognized by the Georgia College athletic department for their efforts in organizing and promoting the club. The goal of the club is to provide students with an opportunity to experience the thrill of diving in the open sea. The club meets weekly to discuss diving techniques, safety, and equipment. The club also coordinates diving trips to various locations, both near and far. The Student Dive Team is open to all Georgia College students who are interested in diving, regardless of their experience level. If you are interested in learning more about the Seacl Diving Club, please contact Ed Tullar, Ed Mardis, or Lewis Paine.
Sociologist View Activities
by Tina Asmis

Now, when there is so much emphasis on students' concern with college problems, Mr. R. Kimberly Lightfield, the new instructor of sociology at Georgia College, has expressed his views on the subject.

Mr. Lightfield is a native of Pompano Beach, Florida, received his B.A. degree at Florida Presbyterian College at St. Petersburg, and his M.A. degree at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Before teaching, he worked with the juvenile court in Tampa. He and his wife raise chickens as a hobby.

When asked his opinion of Georgia College compared to the one which he attended, he responded that the communication between students, faculty, and administration at large is very difficult and consequently the students and faculty and administration appear almost unknown to each other. Yes, College perhaps has the disadvantage of a much smaller college without the cosmopolitanism of larger ones, and therefore, the students may be more provincial, more conservative. As the school grows in size and scope, many changes will be necessary to fit the needs and demands of the students. Mr. Lightfield feels student involvement is absolutely necessary in maintaining a progressive and growing college. He says students should desire to and actively participate in the growth and development of the school. It is no longer necessary to disapprove of an underground newspaper. Such a media shows that students do have ideas and interests enough to generate change. The fact that it is not unusual and therefore anonymous shows the paper pertains to "every man," not a select group. He believes that if students will act on this idea and interested in his courses, they can perhaps wean his students toward active and constructive responsibility. He feels that the only way students can express their opinion is by expressing it in their work and possibly in the extra-curricular groups.

---

Introducing the Choir
And Mixed Chorus
by Carl Hamilton

Corning his future plans, Mr. Lightfield would like to continue teaching at Georgia College and eventually work in college administration.

Concluding his introductory talk, Mr. Lightfield would like to continue teaching at Georgia College and eventually work in college administration.

---

The COLONNADE

November 7, 1969

Now at

TRAPNELL'S SHOES
145 West Hancock St.
MILLEDGEVILLE, GA. 31061

John Romain
Shoes & Bags
Miss America Shoes
And Many Other Brands

Mr. Lightfield would like to continue teaching at Georgia College and eventually work in college administration.

---

October 13, 1969

(Cont. from page 3)

projects included a biology tutorial program, a workshop at Lake Laurel,

for deprived children,

the labeling of trees on campus, and a club newsletter.

After the business meeting studies were served.

Students Attend

Governor's Conference
Three GCS students—Gail

Froseley, Stanley Cooke, and

Marty Shipwires—among student leaders, administrators, educators from all over the state attended the seventh annual Governor's Conference on Education last

Wednesday and Thursday.

The conference, held at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hostel in Atlanta, was appointed by the Georgia School Boards Association.

The conference proved to be very profitable. The only regret these students had was that it was necessary to miss Annual Hike.

---

CAMPUS THEATRE

TODAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY

A GIANT OF A MOVIE

STARS THURSDAY

WINNER OF:"ACADEMY AWARD FOR BEST ACTRESS" OF 1948

GREGORY PECK OMAH SEABED

MACKENZIE'S GOLD

PETER OTOOLE KATHARINE HEPBURN

THE LION IN WINTER

FILM PREMIERE 3:30 P.M.

TODAY}

CHEMICALS FOR EDUCATION PUBLICATIONS

---

HAROLD'S