Five Georgia College students were arrested Sunday, October 19, by the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office, CBI agents, and the Milledgeville City Police. The students were: John Estes for possession and selling of LSD; Robert Lee (Noah) Frady for possession of methamphetamine; andamphetamine; Bertha Paff for possession of marijuana; and David J. Storah for possession of dangerous drugs and narcotics such as marijuana, LSD, and amphetamine. According to Chief Deputy Hal K. Moore of the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office, these students have been released from jail, each having posted $500 bond with the exception of Bertha Paff whose bond was set at $2500. These students will be presented for deliberation by the grand jury on January 18, 1970.

In an interview with Chief Deputy Hal K., he stated that the charge of possession of any narcotic in a colony with a two-year sentence. He also stated that this charge is a state and federal offense and can be tried in either court, but not in both.

Chief Hall said that investigation into this case had been in progress for approximately one month prior to the arrests. All but one of the warrants was sworn out from evidence gathered during the investigatory period. The remaining warrant was issued after two material witnesses, aware of and signed affidavits establishing facts in connection with the narcotics charge.

As Chief Hall stated, if these students are found guilty, they go before a jury, the jury can levy one of several verdicts. If they convicted of a felony the punishment would be two-year imprisonment. If the crime is a misdemeanor, a fine of one-one thousand dollars and a probationary period of two years could be imposed on the offender.

The above information was taken from a press release issued by Sheriff Hubert T. Lingold and from an interview with Chief Deputy Mack Hall.

---

Student Senate Off To A Good Start

The newly formed, newly elected Student Senate held its first meeting Monday night, October 20, at 7:00 P.M. in Parks Hall. Each member of the Senate received a portfolio containing a copy of the Georgia College Government Association Constitution, a booklet on parliamentary procedure, and other information that would be useful to them in Senate organization.

The major business before the Senate in its first session was adoption of rules of procedure and a motion on which to operate. Speaker Phil Sperry of the committee of senators from the Off-Campus District appointed a five-man ad hoc committee. The motion, which met some discussion and was finally deferred until the next meeting for voting.

The Constitution provided that only senators may speak on the floor of the Senate. It was made evident at this first meeting that a great deal of hard work lies ahead for the Student Senate. Its first work will be to lay the foundation upon which to base all the work in the year to come. The Senate will work for the progress of the student body of Georgia College.

Tuesday, October 28, Parks Hall again was the setting for the Student Senate meeting. Mr. Ralph Hempfling from the Department of History and Political Science was present to answer any questions involving parliametary procedure and the duties of certain CGA cabinet members. Senator Phil Sperry's resolution involving model rules of procedure and Student Senate structure was the first order of business, and after some minor revisions the resolution was adopted unanimously.

The CGA budget, which was already in effect, was approved for the remainder of the present quarter and the budget was then referred to the Finance and Appropriations Committee for consideration for the remaining quarter of the academic year. President of the Student Senate, Mary Jane Hunt then presented her appointments to the chairmanships of the nine legislative committees and the Senate approved all of these appointments unanimously.

These were: Rules Committee, Phil Sperry; Judicial Committee, Susan Jackson; Financial & Appropriations Committee, Ken Johnson; Publications Committee, Sandra Hammon; Student Activities Committee, Donna Fulford; College Development Committee, Jeff Wise; Elections Committee, Mary Hempfling; General Investigative Committee, Eugene Devine; Academic Affairs Committee, Martha McBride.

CGA President Gail Pringle was unable to attend this meeting. The various cabinet posts were given interim approval by the Senate body.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Student,
I am sick of you! I am more sick of your professors, a...
The Lettermen Are Coming

By Jacqueline Jones

That's right! The Lettermen are coming to Milledgeville College. Since 1931 they have provided one of the origins of the Georgia Tech band tradition. They are a group of musical students from the Department of Music. The Lettermen have been a staple of Georgia Tech's musical tradition and are even part of the logo for the school. They will be performing on October 16th at 7:30 PM in the Student Center. Be sure to come out and see them perform.

Electrical Distribution System Modernized At GC

The primary electrical distribution system is undergoing a major upgrade at Georgia College. The project is expected to be completed by December of this year. The new system will replace the current primary distribution network, allowing for improved reliability and reduced maintenance costs. The project was awarded to Georgia College's own electrical engineering department, with the help of outside experts.

Registration Procedure Changes

It's nearly that time again, to register for the fall semester. Students must begin to think about the new semester and the courses they will take. Registration for the fall semester will begin on Monday, October 15th, and continue through Friday, October 19th. Students are encouraged to register early to avoid any last-minute confusion.

On the day you are to register:
1. Go to your faculty advisor and plan your schedule. Fill in the schedule card and have your advisor sign it. Do this between November 1 and the day you are to register.
2. Go to each department.

Lettermen To Be Presented In Concert, November 10th

The Lettermen are scheduled to perform at 7:30 PM on November 10th in the Student Center. This is an opportunity for Georgia College students to see one of the most iconic college bands in the country perform live. So mark your calendars and don't miss out on this event.

Miss America Shocks

It's Fantastic

Miss America Shocks is a fast-moving two-man show that will leave your audience breathless. This energetic dance routine is a fun and entertaining way to keep your audience engaged.

Colonnade Delegates To Attend ACP Convention

Four members of the Colonnade staff will attend the American Collegiate Press National Convention in 1969. The delegates include Jack Lambrecht, John Shriver, and two others who will represent the newspaper and yearbook sections of the Colonnade. The convention will provide an opportunity for the delegates to learn more about the latest trends in college journalism and to network with other students from across the country.

Beauty contestants.

Are you satisfied with the looks of your campus? Well, some other students at Georgia College are not. The university recently announced plans to beautify campus and attract more students. This is especially true for Georgia College's women's basketball team, which is having a successful season.

Colonnade Delegates To Attend ACP Convention

Four members of the Colonnade staff will attend the American Collegiate Press National Convention in 1969. The delegates include Jack Lambrecht, John Shriver, and two others who will represent the newspaper and yearbook sections of the Colonnade. The convention will provide an opportunity for the delegates to learn more about the latest trends in college journalism and to network with other students from across the country.

Colonnade Delegates To Attend ACP Convention

Four members of the Colonnade staff will attend the American Collegiate Press National Convention in 1969. The delegates include Jack Lambrecht, John Shriver, and two others who will represent the newspaper and yearbook sections of the Colonnade. The convention will provide an opportunity for the delegates to learn more about the latest trends in college journalism and to network with other students from across the country.
Day Students Plea for Interim Improvements

The cracking, swayback entrance to the lounge area is in need of lighting and color. Impromptu attempts to advertise the lounge by signs have been fruitless.

Overcrowding has caused the expansion of the lounge into the existing corridor of Park's basement.

The card tables pictured here are so long that one can hardly see a chair. One of the remaining three is said to be propped on a chair. The floor in the foreground pictures the dirty condition of the brownstone lounge.

The triangle is fitted with a conservatory of furniture collected over many years. The gray couch pictured has been dated back ten years.

THE SUNDAY TIMES

THE PUBL LTD

THE COVENTRY SHOP LTD

GANT  BASS  WEEJUNS

Colonials Victorious Over North Georgia

The Colonials of Georgia College were victorious in their Saturday afternoon game against the visiting Bulldogs (Georgia College). Marvina Pemberton scored a touchdown early in the contest, and North Georgia's defense was unable to prevent the Colonials from scoring on their second possession.

The Colonials scored two additional touchdowns before halftime, with Pemberton and Tanya Blake scoring. North Georgia's only touchdown came on a long pass from their quarterback, but it was not enough to overcome the Colonials.

The Colonials led 21-0 at halftime and cruised to a 34-12 victory.

GC Has a Riddle!

What's New? Answer: Rosemary Maloney, a junior from Atlanta, has joined the College's Dance Ensemble. Rosemary's加入 has added a new dimension to the ensemble's repertoire.

Fighting Flight! The Georgia College women's basketball team has announced a new player, Sherry Johnson, who will be joining the team for the upcoming season. Sherry's talent and dedication to the game will certainly contribute to the team's success.

The Colonials are expected to have a strong season, with Sherry's addition to the roster.
Day Students-Con't.

This letter bears the signatures of the officers of the Day Student Organization and the signatures of the student senators of District Eleven. As all documents concerning such a large number of people, this project does not encompass the aspirations of all involved. It does, however, reflect the best thought of interested day students.

The creators of this request are admitting it as an effort to see these changes. Next year the next year have a good facility.

Leaving home for a thick shake?

If it was just another cool, refreshing drink we wouldn't try to tempt you.

But we're talking about the incredible Burger Chef thick shakes. They're a little more delicious than the rest. You can get them in creamy strawberry, yummy chocolate or sensational vanilla. And every one is so rich and thick you can eat it with a spoon.

Of course, if a thick shake alone isn't enough to get you out of the house, you can always get a Burger Chef hamburger to go with it.

741 S. WAYNE