The Lettermen' To Perform In Concert November 10

The Lettermen currently on their recent cross-country tour, are scheduled to perform Monday night, November 10, at 8:00 in Russell Auditorium, according to Miss Harriet Doshuon, director of student activities.

Admission to the concert is $5.00 plus 1.0, for students, and faculty, and $6.00 for guests.

"They can take a song that was a hit twenty years ago and make it a hit all over again, and they can do it without changing the original concept of the song," said TV star Connie Stevens.

"The Lettermen" are known vocally by their tight, close harmony which has become their trademark. The group features this unique close harmony in several a capella numbers performed during concerts. Throughout their long career, The Lettermen have stuck to that ideal and this is one of the greatest reasons for their remarkable success. One of the best and most successful groups in the country, achievements include recordings of over two dozen hit albums for Capitol.

The great sound they create has not stopped only the recording business to the talented trio, but also television and college appearances. Their college appeal was seen clearly when they were elected Number One college attraction in the Billboard Magazine Poll. Among their most recent television appearances are The Red Skelton Hour, Hollywood Palace, and Jack Benny TV show.

The group's successful record for their nightclub debut in early 1962 at Hollywood's Coliseum and were greeted by unanimous praise from all corners. Typical of the remarks that followed their initial nightclub appearance was the review by columnist Betta Greensburg who wrote: "The group, literally configuration, won their letters last night with the sophistication of Los Angeles audience." Variety described them as a group who "came on strongly with its sound and good rapport." And the Hollywood Reporter called them "three young men who sing songs as the composers hoped they'd be sung."

Praise, however, seems to be a commodity that came to Jim, Tony, and Cary even before they called themselves the Lettermens. It came to Tony (Butala) in his hometown (Cont. on pg. 8)

The Lettermen will be at GC for a concert November 10.

Frosh Elect Benson as President

In the freshmen class elections held Wednesday, Gordon Benson, a math major from Buford, Georgia, was elected as president of the class of '73 in a very close race. The results of the first tally in the president's race were Gordon Benson, 108 votes; Virginia Betson, 103; and Crystal Fountain, 76.

When asked for a statement concerning his plans for the class Gordon said, "I shall attempt to unite the male and female students in our class as making the class of '73 the best class ever."

In the other races Carolyn Bennett, a home economics major from Gainesville, Georgia, was elected Vice President, Carolyn wants to enter the field of fashion merchandising upon graduation.

Secretary-treasurer for the class is Linda Shridland, a home economics major from Greenbush, Georgia. The two representatives to Honor Council are Beth Copeland from Greenbush, Georgia and Kay Davis, an English major from Gordon, Georgia.

The sponsor for the class of '73 is Mr. Lewis T. Parkers, Jr., Assistant professor in the mathematics department.

To these officers, their sponsor, and the class of '73, the Colonade expresses its congratulations.

Day Student Response

The Day Student Organization petition for the refurbishing of the Day Student union has been given favorable consideration by the Administration.

President, Bunting, at a reception at the Madison last week for student leaders and faculty, in an informal talk with Day Student Organization members, stated that he had received the petition letter that day and felt that the request had merit.

Dr. Bunting revealed that plans for the union and the lounge facilities had been under consideration by Georgia College authorities for close four weeks and that he was impressed by the recommendations contained in the letter. Noting the time for completion of the project...
New Project Is In The Bud

The Colonnade November 6, 1969

Are you satisfied with the appearance of our campus? Well, some other students probably aren't, and so they have been doing something about it this spring. This group of interested students, along with Miss Dusseau, Dr. Lignac, and Mr. Harper, have been meeting for the past few weeks at a Flower Power project organizing meeting to plan for the four classes and the junior area, as well as the library and faculty, have a representatives on the committee. Each group representative has designated a perimeter area on campus to benefit. The group may choose their own design, color, and plants for this area. Each area will be marked with a sign telling what the class area will be for the work. The different interest classes will choose the sign the spring when the flowers will be in full bloom. It is hoped this project will be continued from year to year. Normally, it takes 3-4 years to get the basics into place, and growing and caring for the flower beds properly. No question in necessity except the desire to work. If you are interested, please get in touch with your representatives. Even if you can't get there on time, but would like to help, please let us know in the staff. Let's get Flower Power G.R.O.W. IN (GROWERY POWER COMMITTEE)

Senior Art Majors Display Work At Georgia College

The exhibition of works by senior art majors will begin with a reception on November 7, in the main entrance area of Georgia College and Campus University.

During the reception, visitors will be able to view a variety of works created by the senior art majors. These works include paintings, sculptures, and other forms of art. The exhibition will feature works by students from several different art disciplines, including painting, sculpture, and photography.

The exhibition will run from November 7 to November 10, and will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. Visitors are encouraged to attend the reception on November 7 to meet the artists and learn more about their work.

President Estes stated that a committee has been established under the administration of Dr. S. E. Estes, with members from both the College and Campus University. The committee is composed of students from both institutions and is responsible for overseeing the planning and execution of the exhibition.

Day Student

The Day Student Program, sponsored by the Day Student Organization, has been popular among Georgia College students. The program allows students to attend classes during the day and return home in the evening. This is particularly beneficial for students who are unable to live on campus, or for those who wish to balance their academic and personal lives.

The program is designed to meet the needs of students who are unable to live on campus or who prefer the flexibility of attending classes during the day. It is open to any Georgia College student who meets the eligibility requirements.

The program also offers a variety of extracurricular activities, including sports, clubs, and social events. These activities are designed to provide students with opportunities to meet new people and to develop new skills.

Circus Comes to Town

Circus comes to town today when the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus arrived in Athens. The circus is scheduled to perform for three days, starting today.

The circus is one of the largest and most popular circuses in the world, and it is known for its impressive animal acts, including elephants, lions, and tigers. The circus also features a variety of human performers, including clowns, acrobats, and contortionists.

The circus is open daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. admission is free for children under 6 years of age, and adult admission is $5. There is also a $2 charge for parking.

The circus is located at the Georgia College campus, and parking is available on campus.

HARROLD'S

High school students attending this event have the opportunity to experience the excitement of the circus, and to learn about the history and culture of this popular form of entertainment.

Slipper - Is It Really Worth It?

For many years a symbol of tradition has been held high above the student body. In that student activity called Slipper, yet the time has come when it does so in many areas and tradition, to take a long look at this activity and decide whether or not it is an essential activity for our purpose or if it is actually causing a disturbance on campus.

SLIPPER AS A STUDENT ACTIVITY

Campus in the Round

Fiddle Fadd and Flibuster

By Eugene Stevenson

Last Tuesday, November 6th, the Student Senate met to discuss the activities of the Student Senate. The meeting was held in the Senate Chamber of the Georgia College campus.

The main topic of discussion was the future of Slipper, the student body's traditional activity. The Student Senate decided to take a closer look at Slipper to determine if it is still relevant and necessary.

The Student Senate also discussed the possibility of creating a new student activity that would better reflect the needs and desires of the student body.

Daves's Comments

The Colonnade days and times for meetings have been changed due to a change in printing dates. The paper is now published every Thursday rather than the previous Tuesday.

The Colonnade encourages all students to participate in this game activity at 5 p.m. in the Publications Office.

Workshops for Slipper begin Sunday November 7 at 6:30 p.m. The workshops meet in the Student Center and the Student Senate will be present.

The Colonnade is published weekly except during holiday weeks.

The Student Senate is meeting at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Center.

Dear Editors and Creators:

I have read your creations such as The Jester, The Squire, The Quill, and The Prayer. I find your efforts to be far more than just a hobby. I think that you are dedicated to the art of poetry and to the craft of writing.

This paper is not supposed to be a replacement for the major office of the student newspaper, but it is a way of expressing our thoughts and opinions. I hope that you will continue to write your poems and essays and share them with each other.

If you have any comments or suggestions, please let me know. I would love to hear your thoughts.

Sincerely,

George Johnson

Drugs Are Here—So What?

Dear Editor:

In reply to the editorial in the last week's Colonnade, I would say that the writer is wrong. What is a drug? Are all drugs bad? Are there good drugs? What are the dangers of drug addiction? These are all questions that need to be answered.

The writer also mentions that drug use is a problem. I disagree with this statement. Drug use is not a problem. It is a choice that some people make.

I believe that drug use is a personal choice and that people should be allowed to make their own decisions. I will not argue with anyone who wants to use drugs. I will only argue with anyone who wants to make their own decisions.

Sincerely,

Jane Smith

Letters Welcome!
Why Be A Sucker?

This day and time most people realize how easy it is to be a sucker. It is easier for the professional swindler to take advantage of you than to invest in your education. Even the most experienced and sophisticated people are subject to make mistakes. However, there are some people who are able to get away with it, but the loss is not the least, fact of the matter is, that every time you lose money, you lose money. It is very hard to convince people that they cannot be swindled, especially if they have a conversation with one who is a professional swindler. If you ever want to become a professional swindler, you must have a good education. If you have a good education, you will not have to go to jail for做生意.

Dr. Specht Tells Of Ga Rotary Student Program

Dr. Specht's tennis match with the Colonials was an exciting one. The Colonials were leading 2-1 when time ran out. The Colonials went on to win 3-1.

But let's do something about it. We are having a meeting this Monday-and every Monday at 6:30 p.m. in Park 260 and we are going to really get Georgia College on the map. With Mr. Ralph Hempfill as our advisor, we are going to form that Debate Club that every college should have. Now if you like to argue a point, particularly a point which is being widely discussed in our world today, then your place is on the floor of the Debate Club. If you are a quiet person, but interested in current events never fear, there is still a place for you on the Debate Club. In fact, there is a very important place for you.

The heart and soul of any good debate club is its research staff, and the staff can never get too large.

So let's show some spirit, let's show some interest and awareness, let's make our college the Greatest! Be at the next meeting and have a part in it. Giving yourself just a little bit more to be proud of.

The Letterman

(Sharon, Pennsylvania) during his first professional engagement, the song on a radio show of eight years ago, led him to a singing job with the famed Mitchell Boys Chorus and eventually to Hollywood.

Prayer for Gary (Pike) garnered enough favorable notices from the local press to encourage him to pursue a singing career on a professional basis. Early in 1961 he came to California and joined Tony to form The Letterman.

Since then, the burgeoning popularity of the group has seen their careers branch out from records to all phases of entertainment. Despite their enormous success, The Letterman haven't changed. They're still the same Campus-A-a trio who maintain the deepest respect for good songs and the people who write them.

vate school. Several are also awarded to undergraduates at the Junior College level. About 65% of the students are males.

Selection is made in February of each year. Mr. Hugh H. Thomas of Savannah is the chairman of the Board of Trustees who work on this plan. A young person in Sweden or some other country hears of the plan, and submits his or her name to the Rotary Club. In his own country, Mr. Thomas receives a list of students from all over the world and screens it down to about seventy. This list is sent to every Rotary Club in the state who wishes to sponsor a student for that year. The club selects five students, in the order of preference, and sends it back to Mr. Thomas, as well as information on the student to be attended by the club. Mr. Thomas reviews this and notifies the students and the clubs about the outcome of the selections.

The factors sought for in these students are ability to speak English, age, educational interest, character, high intelligence, and adaptability. There is one student attending Georgia College on this program. plank to a large crowd. TheLetterman's performance has drawn rave reviews.
