Opposes Student Faculty Committee; Gives Freshman Unrestricted Curfew

For the first time in the history of the GG Student Senate, the Senate this week voted not to accept a change made in a bill by the Student Faculty Committee. The bill was Number 17, which stated that the Senate was to hold a hearing on the matter of student social probation. Senator Ken Ranahan, who voted to accept the change, and Lamer Cutlup, who opposed it, after a small amount of discussion, every Senator except one voted not to accept the change made by the Committee.

Senator Fields remarked, "Now we've got it really a Senate or not?" President Susan Jackson announced that discussion of the Declaration of Student Rights would again be postponed due to the repeated absence of Ray Jones, chairman of the committee that drew it up. "We'll just postpone it until someone decides to come and talk about the student's rights," she said. Senator Bick Firo made a motion to take the Declaration from the table and discuss it anyway, remarking that it was self-explanatory and the presence of Jones was not mandatory, and Fields seconded, adding the suggestion that it be sent to a committee to be put into bill form and presented to the Senate next week. Senator Dietz further suggested that the Declaration be left on the table until next week. In the vote, five senators voted to remove it, but the majority voted to let it remain on the table, as inceptive legislation. Senator David Pettigrew told the Senate that he had discussed with Dana George Christenberry the possibility of beginning a four-week day at GG. Christenberry replied that he had already investigated this and that a committee would probably be set up during next Fall quarter and that the chairman of the Academic Affairs Committee would certainly be included in that committee.

Come For A Ride With "Carousel"

"Ride on the merry-go-round, pay five a mile for a ticket. Ride on the merry-go-round with your own 4-cylinder side." Wednesday night was opening night for the Carousel. The play was very attractive and the response was good. The audiences favorite scene was the argument between Mrs. Maitis and Jigger Crain. Carrie Pepperidge and Enos Snow's bolt, and Billy Biglow's collapse. In Mrs. Maitis and Jigger Crain's fight were statements of interest such as, "Put on a new coat of paint, you're starting to peek Old pasture boy!!" in Carrie and Enos Snow's play. Also, Enos has been talking about how his business and future family will be getting bigger and bigger, C. H. says. "And so will my Jigger!" which was another example of Biglow's silliness is about the least intelligent in the play. It expresses his mixed up feelings about the coming baby, and what he is going to be himself.

The play is fairly well known. Not only for the plot but also for the wild and wacky scenes that come from it. Among the songs that are favorite, are "Bathing Out All Over." "You'll Never Walk Alone." "When the

A Study Of Opposite-For-April 15 Rally

The military-industrial establishment is like a giant amoeba that is making the metamorphosis of the holy of holies. We cannot let this go on. On April 15th at 5 P.M. the Working Peoples' Alliance of the Pacific is organizing a rally at the University of Washington. It is a very important rally. We are going to do a lot of things at this rally, including a march. People come out and show your support for those who are fighting against the war. We need a lot of people to come out and show your support. Thank you very much.

law - - No for 5-10 years for possession of hashish, and 2-5 years for trafficking. While serving their sentences in this area, some American young people have been removed to prison mental hospital. Courts may not consider mitigating factors, such as the youth of a suspect or the absence of prior offenses. These are often ignored.

- the attempt by a young American to smuggle 25 pounds of hashish into an East European country led to a five-year sentence at a work camp for foreign prisoners whose conditions are barely tolerable. During his imprisonment, he developed tuberculosis. He served 20 months before being released.

The increase in arrests of Americans abroad on drug charges is in part the result of the AMERICANS ARRESTED ABROAD ON NARCOTICS CHARGES AS REPORTED BY FOREIGN SERVICE POSTS 1969, 1970
