Have you ever been the star of your own parade? Tina has come.
You must find your big chance.
The weekend of February 15 and 16 is Georgia College's first homecoming and that Saturday will be a parade. Of course, anyone wants one. To show your power in quaintly, you'd have to build a float, ride in it, be a band, or reenact. If you fairly bright college student could conclude there can be no parade if one is to exist. Chants are urged to meet and discuss the matter, meet together if you must and enter a float. Entry forms must be sent out to club presidents and others wishing to enter a float may stop by Miss Donahue's office to pick up a form. We play Georgia Southwestern in basketball that night and we want our Colonials to win. Show them with some spirit.

The alumni are invited and there will be presentals and benediction performed each day. Each group is urged to construct a display which their presidents will be supplied. Details for in front of their dorm. These parades float and cars will be judged Saturday evening that evening. We can really show them alumni how this campus has picked up with its additions for our boys.

The Senior Lettermen and women of our sports teams will be invited to give us a homecoming queen. Then it's the entire school's privilege and responsibility to vote for their court, who will be introduced at the football game. The queen, who will be crowned at the game, will wear a crown and robe. She will be featured Sundown from the Middel Georgia Queen, if from 8-10:00. You can catch a preview performance when they perform at the Mane Coliseum on Friday, January 30.

No plans are final, things will continue to materialize until the whole weekend is over. Now it's the time for G.C. to take advantage of its natural imagination and its transforms and get their experiences with the people.

On the night of the final the 10 seminallists will be announced. These groups of seven will be selected the leaders and be judged in evening gown. These semifinalists will then be narrowed down to six and the leaders. From this group there will be the audience and Miss Linda Tharmood, last May graduate, will announce the two who will be crowned by Miss Linda Tharmood, last May graduate.

Organ Recital

The 1971 Miss Georgia College Pageant will be held February 1 in Russell Auditorium.

The contest is scheduled for January 30, 1971, where a semifinal will be asked. The eliminations will be performed on the semifinalists. They will be judged in competitions of evening gown, swimsuit, talent, and previous interviews with judges.

The soloists will take time from their solo activities to participate in the performance.

Honor Council Passes Sentence

On Sunday, January 3, 1971, Johnny Chandler spoke a pivotal chair from Knox Hall Rec. Room. On Friday, January 15, 1971, the violator was brought before Dean Littleton. The Dean made it clear that the violator had been seen putting the said chair in the said violators car. Seen by whom, no one knows, with the exception of the male coed who was present. In a matter of hours after the violation the Dean notified Charles Oberlinan was mailed a letter informing him of the fact that he was permanently expelled from G.C. on top of all, it turned out that the violator was never given a hearing by the President, the faculty, the students, or the Honor Council.

On the night of Monday, January 18, 1971, Honor Council met. Bert Brown, Vice-President of freshman class, and Mike Johnson were brought before Honor Council for "failing to report the knowledge of stolen property." "Failing to report stolen property" is not against Honor Code if the violator is told to return said property and doing so, confiding the fact. Bert Brown, Mike Johnson, and Charles Oberlinan did return the property and two weeks later the violator admitted guilt and returned the chair.

On the Monday night that Honor Council met, the case in question came to life once hour, and forty-five minutes after the announced time of six p.m. It is reported that Oberlinan was in with the Honor Council for thirty minutes before Mr. Chandler brought back the council. Each person on trial, Mr. Brown, Mr. Oberlinan, and Mr. Johnson, were brought in one at a time along with their three attorneys. Mr. Brown was denied the attorney of his choice because according to Co-Chairman Willman having his choice for attorney would not be to his best interest. Mr. Chandler, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Johnson were taken one at a time from the council's field and placed in the G.C. Security Office with an armed security officer. All three verdicts and sentences were given to the defendants at the same time. Mr. Chandler is to be suspended for the remainder of this quarter and the Spring quarter of this academic year. Mr. Brown, and Mr. Johnson are in the U.S. Army. The final sentence is that the Junior Class of Georgia College has new member since the scholarship of its former member, Charles Oberlinan, was revoked. This whole thing has been going on for a week and the Council in Milligedville also desire mentioning.

There will be a tea on the afternoon of the pageant at the Mansion for the judges given by Mrs. and Mr. Whitehead, Haining.

This year will be one of the best and most successful pageant that has been held in the past few years. The contest is being held on February 1 in Russell Auditorium. The contest is scheduled for January 30, 1971, where a semifinal will be asked. The eliminations will be performed on the semifinalists. They will be judged in competitions of evening gown, swimsuit, talent, and previous interviews with judges.

The second in the Marlboro Music Festival's "Music from Marlboro" series will come to the University of Georgia as part of the Milligedville College G.C. Music Festival on Saturday, April 11, 1970. The event will be sponsored by the Georgia College Music Department and the Georgia College Student Music Club.

The concert will be held in Russell Auditorium, will be presented by the Select Singers and Georgia College students.

Featured will be works by several prominent American composers, including Conlon Chenoweth, Malcolm Arnold, and William Schuman.

The concert will take place at the University of Georgia's Music Hall, located at 201 E. Broad St.

The concerts are free and open to the public.
Dear Editor,

The recent judgment of the local football team, the North Carolina State University, for keeping the African American player out was a major setback for the team. However, the students and faculty of the university have not given up hope. They have organized a series of protests and rallies to demand justice for the African American player. The university administration has promised to investigate the matter thoroughly and to take appropriate action.

Sincerely,

definitely not stimulating.
President Hunting continues "qualified teachers and free students join together to make Georgia College one of the finest institutions anywhere." As to this statement I will let you, the students of Georgia College decide. I ask that every student who believes that Georgia College is one of the finest insitutions anywhere come talk to me personally. I will offer you my suggestion that you visit another institution near Millidgeville so you can receive the professional help you need.
Please do not think I dislike J. Wimble Hunting, but I feel that as an "Honor Coder" I must report my friends if they violate a rule, so that I can be complete fulfillment of my responsibility.

Mike Johnston

Editor Colonnade: Since entering college my views concerning the current internal revolution in the United States have changed drastically. No longer do I believe in the statement, "My country, right or wrong." I feel that our government has lost sight of the original goals of our country. America was founded on the belief that our government should be "of the people, by the people, for the people." Our nation, the richest in the world, does not allocate enough funds to the necessities. Americans who will die each day of starvation and exposure to the elements. To be able to enjoy a minimal life in the United States a roof over your head, sufficient clothing, ample food, it would cost over $25.00 a month. It is my belief that our nations should be retained in form of a race in general. Living standard of our country and North, and a token withdrawal of troops. How can our President talk of peace in Vietnam when he exterminates the war into neighboring countries?

Perhaps Nixon's plans for peace include wiping out the populations of these small nations.

Pictures of President Nixon show him building up the peace pipe in each hand; one wonders if he does this for a lot of our countries that are in the world, the bloodshed and suffering in these countries. We have often been told by our politicians that if the Viet Cong return home we will return home. According to the Geneva Accords, there exists a republic of Vietnam; it's capital is Hanoi. Perhaps the role of aggressor should be re-evaluated. Our high officials have said we are at war in Vietnam to stop the Chinese expansion, yet we have no information on the presence of Chinese troops in Vietnam or actually anywhere outside of China. When military officials can say that we kill over 4 civilians for every enemy civilian killed, can we put the people of the U.S. morally justify our position in the war.

When you begin discussing a countries governmental policies as to respect all to look into the current administration.
President Nixon could become a great President. Nixon said a few months back that he had been planning to end the Vietnam war, the stock market rose and civil rights act was repealed but then came Cambodia, numerous bombings of the North, and a token withdrawal
