Stop the World—I Want to Get Off”: the award-winning Leslie Bricusse—Anthony Newley musical that ran for more than 100 performances on Broadway, will be staged at Georgia College on Thursday, April 1, at 8 p.m. in Russell Auditorium.

Handing out the cast will be actor-cum-comedian Jackie Warren, widely known for his many appearances on television and in the theatre.

The production is highlighted by a score that includes such songs as “What Kind of Fleet Am I?”, “Gonna Build A Mountain”, and “Once in a Lifetime.”

The play is the story of the seven seasons in a man’s life, Littleclop (Warren), a circus clown, calls his company together for a rehearsal, searching for a new idea. By the accident, he finds possibilities in mimicking the story of his life, and what might be.

He portrays his birth, childhood, schooldays, his first romance with the opposite sex, his adolescence, his first job in a factory. The audience watches him to the end as he portrays, in his present wife, and with a cry stirs his lasting circus dream to explain what it all about.

The show first went on stage in London in 1961 and became an immediate success. It ran for 17 months, gaining the London Drama Critics Circle Award as the best production of the year. "What Kind of Fleet Am I?" won the all-time record for the best song of the year, and all of the songs were chosen as the best score of the year.

Brought to Broadway by David Merrick, “Stop the World” repeated its London success, drawing big audiences for 15 months. Several productions of the show have toured since 1965, meeting critical acclaim and appreciative audiences in both cities as Stockholm, Oslo, Copenhagen, Helsinki, Berlin, Paris and Melbourne.

The Georgia College performance is being sponsored by the College Lecture Series. Georgia College students will be admitted free of charge. Adult tickets are available for $2 while tickets for high school students will cost a dime.

Those wishing ticket information should call 404-0441, ext. 238.

GEORGIAThis Week...

The Georgia College students were entertained by the Grass Rats in a concert March 29 in Russell Auditorium. Also performing were Y-10 Rock Held from Milledgeville. Pictured are: Bob Grill, bass; Warren Eiser, guitar, Nicky Coose, drummer, Dennis Proverno organist.

General James To Address Georgia College Students

Brigadier General Daniel (Chappie) James, Jr., Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs) and one of the highest ranking black men in the armed services, will address the students of Georgia College on April 1 at 2 p.m. in Russell Auditorium.

James is also scheduled to meet with members of the college's Afro-American Society.

James' 34-year Air Force career has been marked by numerous decorations and honors. He has been awarded the Legion of Merit, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with 13 clusters, a Distinguished Unit Citation, a Presidential Unit Citation, and the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

He has also been honored frequently by civilian organizations. He was named Young Man of the Year in Massachusetts in 1964, was given the Florida Jaycee Man of the Year Award in 1980, and received George Washington Freedom Foundation Medal in 1983 and 1985.

James was presented the Phoenix Urban League Man of the Year Award in 1973, the 169 Builders of a Greater Arizona Award, the Arnold Air Society Eugenio M. Backett Award for 1979, and the Kappa Alpha Psi Distinguished Service Achievement Award for 1979. Cont. on Page 4

NEWSBRIEFS

Special Election Set

A special election will be held on Wednesday, April 11 for senate vacancies. The day students must elect six new senators. Wells dorm must select two new senators, and Emaze and Sardof dorms must each elect one senator.

Petitions for candidacy can be obtained at the Post Office window beginning Monday.

G.C. Faculty Member And Student Get Grants

Dr. William H. Lamb, Jr., chairman of the Georgia College physics department, and Charles Glenn Benard, a sophomore physics major from Conyers, have been awarded National Science Foundation grants to participate in research this summer at the University of South Carolina. Lamb and Benard will use the Van de Graaff accelerator at USC to investigate the channeling of accelerated protons in crystal lattice structures.

The research is a continuation of work begun last summer by Lamb and another student. The work was funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation for this summer's work; a prior grant from the American Chemical Society paid for the expenses of the previous year's work.

The $1,200 grant will be used to pay the expenses of the student and his advisor for the summer. Benard will spend the entire summer at the university, and Lamb will make a 12-week visit.

GC and Georgia College have a total of 14 grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Board, and other military agencies.
The Colonade

April 1, 1973

The Colonade, the student newspaper of Georgia College at Milledgeville, Georgia, is a weekly publication that covers campus news, sports, social events, and other activities. The newspaper is known for its coverage of campus life and its role in promoting student engagement and community building.

The Egg and Eye

April 1, 1973

The Egg and Eye is a column that discusses various topics, including student life, campus events, and social issues. The column is written by an anonymous author and provides a unique perspective on the college experience.

Comming Madame Effie's New Grand Floating Palace

April 1, 1973

This section appears to be an advertisement or announcement for a new grand floating palace, possibly related to a social event or gathering at the college.

Gymnastics Finalists In Regional Tounry

Two members of the Georgia College women's gymnastics team have qualified for the national competition. The team's performance in the regional tournament signifies their readiness to compete on the national level, showcasing the talent and dedication of the Georgia College gymnasts.

The Colonade

April 1, 1973

This section seems to be a continuation of the gymnastics coverage, discussing the team's performance and qualifications for the national competition.

First Week Of Sports Washed Out

The sports program at Georgia College got off to a soggy start, indeed, as rain forced cancellation of two baseball games and two men's tennis matches.

The Colonade

April 1, 1973

This section provides an update on the sports events affected by the weather, emphasizing the challenges faced by athletes and the impact on the college community.

FilM Of The Week

With the intent of focusing the attention of characteristic moviegoers on the numerous activities and events taking place on the college campus, the FilM of the Week is presented, providing a selection of movies for students to enjoy.

The Colonade

April 1, 1973

This section highlights the FilM of the Week, offering recommendations and insights into the films being shown.

The Coventry Shop, LTD.

April 1, 1973

The Coventry Shop, LTD is featured, possibly showcasing its products or services, which may include clothing, accessories, or other items available to students and the college community.

TRAPNELL'S

April 1, 1973

TRAPNELL'S is a store or business located at 116 S. WAYNE STREET, 452-1999, offering various goods and services to the college community.

This document appears to be a collection of various sections from the Georgia College student newspaper, The Colonade, covering a range of topics including sports, events, and other campus-related matters. The text provides a snapshot of the college experience during the early 1970s, highlighting the dynamic and engaging nature of college life.
NEWSBRIEFS

Phoenix Society Accepting Applicants

All students who are graduating in June or August of 1971 and who feel they may be eligible for membership in Phoenix, Georgia College's senior honor society, should submit their names and proof of quality point average to Mrs. Mary Ann Forrell, Lasser 215, or G. C. Box 586. The rules governing eligibility for Phoenix are as follows: Candidates must have credit for a minimum of 24 quarter hours and a quality point average of 2.0, and must be within the upper 7 percent of the class. A student transferring from another institution must have earned a minimum of 25 quarter hours at Georgia College. Only those courses are counted in determining eligibility. The transfer student must have a core-point ratio of at least 80 above the minimum for eligibility in his class. It is assumed the student will make to remain in grades during the first two years of college while they are taking general education courses and their higher while working in their major and minor fields in the junior and senior years; therefore, the transfer, whose average is based only on his upper class work, should have a slightly higher average than the student whose average is based on all of his college courses.

Editor Of N. A. Review To Speak

Robby Wilson, Jr., poet and editor of the North American Review, will appear on campus Monday, April 5, under the auspices of the Three-Year Master's Program and the English Department.

Wilson's poetry has appeared in several periodicals, including Atlantic Monthly, New Republic, New American, and Virginia Quarterly Review. He has published a volume of verse, All That Loves Me (1969), and his poetry appears in such anthologies as Best Poems of 1970, Three Georges, and Interpreting Literature. This fall his book Three Masters in Modern Fiction, written in collaboration with William E. McFee and Donald R. Vicinus, will be published.

At Georgia College Wilson, who has done readings at colleges and universities in Connecticut, South Carolina, Louisiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, and Minnesota, will offer a reading of his poetry that will also include a reading of his essay on the poet and his poem "The Great Teacher," which appears in the freshman textbook. Wilson will be in residence as a visiting professor of English at the College.

In addition to his editorial duties, Wilson is an associate professor of English at the University of Northern Iowa. He received his B.A. degree from Benedict College and his M.A. from the Iowa University.

Afro-American Society

Sponsors Trip To King's Grave

The Georgia College Afro-American Society has announced plans to sponsor a trip to Atlanta on April 4 to visit the grave of Dr. Martin Luther King in commemoration of his death.

The group is scheduled to leave Milledgeville at 9 a.m. Reservations for the trip may be made with members of the Afro-American Society.

Mrs. Farr Does It Again

Kirkpatrick's BAKERY

Georgia's Finest

Wedding, Birthday

& Party Cakes

Phone 452-0321

THE PUB

SANDWICHES

BEER

LTD

124 W. Hancock St.

The James

House

Restaurant

Downtown

The Citizens and Southern Bank of Milledgeville