NFL Week

Authentic Spanish, French, German, and Chinese food in a college cafeteria?

It's all part of a series of events with foreign flavor due to visit at Georgia College next month.

National Foreign Language Week will be celebrated on campus from March 21 to April 6. The event is being sponsored by the local chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma and marks the first time that Foreign Language Week has been observed at GC.

Gov. Jimmy Carter recently sent Dr. Anise Gonzales of the department of modern foreign languages a proclamation hailing Foreign Language Week in Georgia. Dr. Gonzales has also proclaimed the March 21-4 period as Foreign Language Week in the city.

Among the special events being planned is an exhibit of foreign crafts and arts, cultural groups and folk dancers presenting native songs and dances, a play in Spanish with English narration, and lectures and films.

The big event though is the foreign foods festival to take place in the cafeteria. Dr. Gonzales will personally prepare the Chinese food to be served.

A considerable amount of discussion is being put into the celebration of Foreign Language Week with the executive committee of Alpha Mu Gamma mapping out the activities.

Teach'er Examinations

Less than two weeks remains for prospective teachers who plan to take the National Teacher Examinations at Georgia College on April 6 and 7 to register for those tests. Registration is at the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., according to Elizabeth E. Heke, counselor of students.

Registration for the examinations must be forwarded so as to reach the Princeton Office not later than March 14. Information with a description of registration forms and containing registration fees may be obtained from the director of graduate studies, Dr. Everson, or directly from the National Teacher Examiners, Educational Testing Service, Box 91, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

At the one-day test session a candidate may take the common examinations, which include tests in professional education and general education, and one of the 25 area examinations which are designed to evaluate the understanding of the subject matter and competence applicable to the area he may be assigned.

Each candidate will receive an admission ticket showing him the exact location of the center where he should report. Candidates for the common examinations will report at 8:30 a.m. on April 6, and should finish by approximately 1:30 p.m.

Candidates for the area examinations will report at 1:30 p.m. and should finish by approximately 4:15 p.m. at the time schedule for those examinations which has been set up by the lasting service.

Tour A Home

Two architecture seminars will be offered this spring semester, one in Savannah and one in Milledgeville.

The Savannah seminar, planned for June 14, will include visits to historic homes, churches, commercial buildings, monuments, town squares, and memorials in the city.

The Historic Savannah Foundation and Savannah State College will assist in planning the event for this spring program there will be included surveys of Colonial, Revolutionary, and Antebellum architecture.

Many of the Savannah buildings to be studied are already preserved or restored to their original status. Others are in the process of restoration.

The Milledgeville area seminar, a study of the architecture of that city, will be held from June 21 to June 26 and will feature short journeys to historic sites in Madison, Eatonton, Sparta, Sandersville, and Monticello as well as Milledgeville. The emphasis of the seminar is

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I was really shocked to read the letter that you, as editor, wrote about the current state of our gymnastics program. It seems as if you doubt the potential of our gymnasts, as if our girls cannot even make it past their first meet. I believe this attitude is best reflected in the fact that we, as coaches, are extremely nostril in good gymnastics relations, and can do no better than the "C-" in our minds. This is the result of the ongoing things.

Minutiae are not just a result of the ongoing things. I know that you, as editor, have been coaching gymnastics for a long time, and I assume that you would be willing to pay for the pleasure of this writing.

Do you doubt your own abilities,以及 you would need to be more specific, and assume these will be forthcoming. From your Minutiae when we meet.

Antigone Reviewed

by Fred Green

These students who missed the production of Antigone last week missed a rare and dramatic experience. Antigone, moving, highly thought-provoking drama of a caliber that few of us in this area have a chance to see. However, it appears that some students were disappointed. These spectators looking to be amused by a fast-moving plot or snappy dialogue were disappointed. Antigone is a play of the mind, a play of ideas too profound to be appreciated in any other way. These students expecting flashy sets and elaborate costumes were also probably disappointed. Antigone was presented on a stage bare enough to hold the great clash of wills and ideas that comprise the play.

What these plays means is that the Georgia College women's varsity gynae- nastics team defeated George Peabody College of Nashville. Tenn. in a dual meet held here Saturday--4 to 3.

Spring showers, along with many days, bring out those beautiful flowers we all look forward to seeing pop up in our gardens and in the gardens of our neighbors. However, it's a little difficult to find a place where you can plant flowers and have them grow. The eggshell has been used as a pot and the watering can be made to last longer enough to fit in these budgets.

Where Has The Green Monster Gone?

"Where has the Green Monster gone?" What happened to our place where we were going to have a campus Martinizing room? These questions and many others have been sent to Antigone, concerning the taking down of the GC's Christmas Tree. The "Green Monster" or Christmas Tree in

Seniors Soon To Say 'Goodbye'

Many Seniors here of Georgia College will be leaving good of GC either to do internships or to study in other fields. For some, it is a bad day, and for others it is a joyous day. For those who have received letters where they are going, it is said, they have a good reason; it is said they have a good reason; they have a good reason. For those leaving Seniors that are happy, and just have reason could be that they are glad to get out of school, period; or they are glad they can go to work and make their own future. Senators, we want you to know that you will be missed and may remember Georgia College never cease.
