10-4-1974

Colonnade October 4, 1974

Colonnade

Follow this and additional works at: http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation
http://kb.gcsu.edu/colonnade/713

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Knowledge Box. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colonnade by an authorized administrator of Knowledge Box.
Roy Lane Chosen
Student Of The Month

This year's Colonnade staff has recently added a new dimension to student recognition for outstanding achievements by selecting a student of the month. In a recent interview with Dean Caryl C. Ganty, the idea was proposed and outlined. The selection of a student-of-the-month is designed to recognize those individuals whose ideas suggestions, achievements, awards or unselfish service contribute in a meaningful way to individual and institutional fulfillment of Georgia's College's purpose.

SUGGESTED CRITERIA FOR SELECTION:

A display of more than ordinary citizenship responsibility, the recipient of special awards, leadership positions or appointments personal achievement resulting from special skills, talents, interest, or efforts; such as, drawing, painting, athletics, music, drama, dance, sewing, cooking, or photography, creative endeavors, such as ideologically suggestive efforts or artistic works, that contribute to a safer, happier, more practical, more wholesome college environment.

...Colonnade's first selection of student of the month for September goes to Roy Lane, a prominent young Baldwin County Democrat and President of the Student Body at Georgia College, was named three times elected to represent the Eighth Congressional District at the 1974 Conference on Democratic Organization in Kansas City, Mo., December 6.

Georgia will send its delegate to the first congressional districts in the conference which will be held to recognize the Democratic Party, to draft a national charter and to consider new delegate to the 1975 Democratic Convention will be selected.

Roy, a GC senior majoring in political science and the other two men chosen for the Kansas City Post was elected from eight delegates chosen to run at the Tallahassee County Courthouse Saturday, September 2.

...The Colonnade encourages all organizations, departments, and individuals to submit nominations along with reasons why this person should be selected as student of the month. All nominations should be submitted to the Colonnade Box 159 by the end of each month. The student of the month will be selected and recognized the first week of each month.

Council Elections

On Tuesday, October 9, students will have an opportunity to elect new Student Council and Senate Representatives for the coming school year. These are your candidates:

|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|-------------|-----------------|-----------|---------------|-----------|------------------------------------------------|-------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------------|

Graduate Testing

In Business

The admission test for graduate study in business (ATGB) will be offered on Nov. 2, Dec. 2 and July 12, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Roe, chairman of students at Georgia College. The test is required of applicants for more than 370 graduate business schools. Georgia College is a per sonal test center.

Registration materials for the test and the ATGB administration bulletin. Additional materials are available at Mrs. Roe's office at 2210 UGA Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., 08541. The regular ATGB fee of $5 includes a score report sent to the candidate in his undergraduate college. In addition and as many as three graduate schools designated on the registration form. ATGB registration forms and test fees must be returned at the test center on the day of the test. Walk- in registration is permitted at all test centers in sufficient space and test material is available after all normally registered candidates have been admitted.

Attention

Meeting for committee on Homecoming Alumni weekend will be held at 12:05 p.m. all interested autonomous committee members please attend.
Mayfair Madness

A Freshman’s Views

By Mark Smith

GL Home Loan

The GL home loan program closed out fiscal year 1990 on a strong note despite unusual availability of funds. A.M. V. Smith, director of the VA Regional Office for the State of Georgia, told me that the loan program at the beginning of the fiscal year 1990 was the best since the peak years of the 1970-1980.

VIDIO?

Last spring, your college's Gov't Annou found itself in a state of affairs. The school was facing a shortage of funds, and the administration was forced to cut back on its spending. The school had to make some tough decisions, and the administration was forced to decide which programs to cut.

Know Your Student Body

A high school student who has been involved in athletics, music, and other extracurricular activities at Mayfair High School, I could not help but enjoy the experience. The school has a rich history and a strong tradition in athletics and academics.

Letter To Senator Nunz

Dear Senator Nunz,

I am writing to you regarding the issue of gun control. As a student, I am concerned about the safety of my fellow students and myself. I believe that gun control is an important issue and that we need to take action to prevent further tragedies.

I hope that you will consider this issue seriously and work towards finding a solution that will help keep our communities safe. Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
Drummers Strike Again!

By落到L. B. Laidlaw

Two unfortunate GC students were struck in the thurday at 6:00 a.m. due to the recent efforts of the Georgia College Drummer's Club. This scholarship will you to understand the goals and mission of these groups:

- Athletics
- Math and science
- Economics

We are profoundly concerned about the well-being and safety of these individuals, who have been robbed of their livelihood.

Clubs & Organizations

New Year For Student Senate

The Senate of the College Government Association will begin its second meeting for the year on January 2nd. The Senate, under the leadership of President John Smith and Vice President Sarah Johnson, will focus on several key issues:

1. Budget Allocation
   - Discuss the budget for the upcoming academic year and allocate funds accordingly.

2. Sustainability Initiatives
   - Develop a plan to incorporate sustainability practices into all aspects of college life.

3. Student Services
   - Review and improve the services offered to students, ensuring they meet the needs of the diverse student body.

Pike News

The Theta Gamma Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha would like to express our appreciation to all who joined us in our annual "Winter Bash" event in the Chippewa Ballroom. The event was a huge success, with a great turnout and a fantastic atmosphere.

Home Ec. Club

Plan now! To see the examples of the current meeting and the next one.

Phi Delta Rush is on! 8:00 a.m. December 17th in the Chippewa Ballroom.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota, the international professional music fraternity for women, will hold their annual rush this Friday at 8:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Atsanta Symphony

The 8th players of the Atsanta Symphony Orchestra will celebrate the new season with a special performance. The concert will feature a variety of musical styles, from classical to contemporary.

Drummers Strike Again!

Erich Von Daniken To Speak

The public is invited to an administrative conference on December 2nd. The meeting will feature a keynote speech by Erich Von Daniken, the author of "The Youngest Apartment in the Universe.

Community Concert

The Millbridge Community Concert will feature students and college guests in a variety of musical performances. The event will be held on December 15th at 7:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

October Is Fire Prevention Month

Georgia Governor Jimmy Carter and Commissioner General John L. Caldwell have proclaimed the month of October as Fire Prevention Month. The state's Office of Fire Protection Services has developed a program to educate the public about fire safety.

Sponsor "Carnival de Milenium"

In 1998, some young Drummers each volunteered to work for the festival, and two years later, they received the grand prize.

Playing in Haskell, Oct. 18 at 7:00 p.m. for students.
Bargain Hunting In One Easy Lesson

Never, simply never, go to a garage sale. I made that mistake last weekend and it cost me a fortune. I didn’t get what I was looking for.

First off, those who have garage sales simply close out everything they don’t want and get a higher price tag on their items than you could buy in a store.

Second, they are very descriptive in what they say—which in turn makes the buyer think he is getting something he is really not.

For example, I was offered a broom for six dollars. The broom had all of five pieces of straw. I questioned the price and was told the word of the handle. Unbretable, was I. My fiance bought the darn thing and the first time she used it the handle split. But she still has five pieces of straw.

Then there was this picture frame. It was really large. I mean gigantic. It was listed at 300, which my fiance plumped down. I asked her what in the world we would ever use the thing for. She replied she didn’t know but somebody something would come along that needed a big frame.

To top it all off, “we bought a picture of some greenery on a horse from the war of 1812. I say ‘we’ because I paid the money for it. All of 60$. The seller stated that the picture was painted long ago. The Sears tag on the back said 1972.

By the way, the original intent of the “bargain hunting” was to see if any of the garage sales included a test for copping. Nobody had a test but whatever they did have we never seemed to have—and all of it was used up in the garage.

I’ll announce in the future when our garage sale will be. I have a five straw broom for sale, a picture frame that you could frame New York City in, and a picture of the great general of 1812. General Mosep. I will sell it all as a unit for 5 bucks.

Faulkner Symposium

"Faulkner, 80 years after 'The Marble Faun'" is the theme of a symposium scheduled Oct. 15-16 at the University of Alabama Continuing Education Center. The program marks the 20th anniversary of the publication of William Faulkner's first works, "The Marble Faun," a small volume of poetry which began his literary career.

The noted Mississippi author died in 1962. His works included "The Sound and the Fury," "Sanctuary," "As I Lay Dying," and "Absalom! Absalom!"

Program participants include Richard Adams of Tulane University, Joseph Blotner of the University of Michigan, Sherman Brooks of Yale University, James Northrop of the University of South Carolina, Sally Pope of Meredith College, Louis D. Rubin Jr. of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Lewis Simpson of Louisiana State University and Floyd Watkins of Emory University.

Program topics include Faulkner: The European Roots; William Faulkner and W.E.B. DuBois: Parallels and Affinities; Faulkner: The Relationship of the Writer to His Work; Faulkner and Anderson: A Further Consideration; Faulkner's Sense of the Sacred; You Would Have to Be Born There to Understand Faulkner; and Faulkner and the Legend of the Artist; and Robert: Faulkner and the Ownership of Property.

Registration for the symposium is $30. Students may register for $15. Information may be obtained by contacting C.E. Adams, director of Conference Activities, Box 2457, University of Alabama 35486.

Restaurant Work

Mr. Don Neal of the "Best & Surf" restaurant is hiring male and female help. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and must have their own transportation. Working hours will be from 4:30 pm to 11:00 pm. Applicants must be able to be on duty by 9:30 a.m.

Unmarried fees and tips will be $80. Married fees and tips will be $90. If interested contact Mr. Neal at 453-3011 after 11:30 p.m.

Sales Clerk

Wants: A buyer for a top condition, one owner 72 Mi. Registered with Michigan D.I.S. tags, Koni shocks, complete new clutch assembly, new starter and dual exhaust. Contact Mike Lee, Box 1266.